South Windsor High School

161 Nevers Road • South Windsor, CT 06074

To the Graduates of 2002:

Upon graduation, we reflect on our past four years here at South Windsor High School. We entered a new beginning as timid freshmen and completed a final chapter in our journey as valiant seniors. As we walk through the halls of South Windsor High School, we come to notice something which seems so insignificant, yet at the same time has so much value to us. The walls are there to keep us safe, and to keep peace throughout each classroom. As we've walked from class to class throughout these memorable years, the walls are one of the few things that have seen us truly change. They've heard our deepest darkest secrets, our goals, dreams, and have been there through thick and thin moments. The walls at South Windsor High have been our confidants without us even knowing. Let us ask one question, "If these walls could talk, what stories would they say about our character and experiences here at South Windsor High School?"

September 11, 2001

We were all sitting around the table in the cafeteria during study hall. The day wasn't any different than a normal day of school, and we were discussing how first period had gone. Suddenly, a student came into the cafeteria and told everyone that a plane had flown into the World Trade Center. As we digested this information, we all thought it had to be wrong. Such a thing had to be a lie; how could it be possible that a plane had simply flown into a huge building? So, we went back to what we were doing. After a while, I figured that I might as well go check out what was really going on, so I told my friends at the table that I'd be back in a few minutes, and went to the library.

The sight on the TV confused me as much as it blew me away. I walked into a room of silence, as teachers and students sat around a television with looks of horror on their faces. The station was showing a picture of a smoking building, one of the World Trade Center towers, and people running through the streets in a panicked rush. It had been true! How was it possible? Could another human being actually have hijacked a plane and flown it into one of the world's most famous landmarks? The answer soon came, for as we watched, another plane entered the screen. The second tower had been hit.

Everything that followed seemed like some ridiculous dream. I sat in the library with a small gathering of people, most with tears in their eyes, watching the tragedy unfold. We watched the towers fall, as innocent people ran through the streets for their lives. And on top of it, to see the Pentagon, the symbol of our country's military, burning with the same fate as the towers; it was just too much. At some point during the coverage, I was told to go back to my class; the school was going into lockdown mode. I walked back with my head down, in disbelief. My friends who had been sitting in the cafeteria asked me what was wrong. All I could do was shake my head, and tell them that the buildings had fallen. The same silence that had enveloped the library now took over the lunchroom. It was now their turn to feel the disbelief. I looked up at one of my friends, who seemed particularly affected. I would later discover why. His father's best friend worked in one of the World Trade Towers.

The rest of the day was filled with rumors and whispers throughout the school. Every time I walked down a hallway, you could pick up bits of a conversation.

“Are there more planes in the air?”

“Terrorists?”

“I heard they took over....”

“Are we going to bomb them?”

I was not alive when JFK was shot, but I speculated that this had to have the same impact as that event. The air was heavy in South Windsor that day, and all over the world, as well.

September 11, 2001 was a day that will live in our memories for the rest of our lives. It was a day that brought Americans from all facets of life together. It was a day that changed the way we live forever. Nearly everyone on the east coast knew someone in New York City on that day, or was affected by the events that took place. Even I knew two people who were there, one of whom was killed, and one of whom is a hero for his work as a fireman on the scene. Thousands of innocent people just like you or me were gone in a blink of an eye on the morning of September 11th. These people were going about their own lives. And like a wisp of smoke in the wind, they were gone. They are only missing in a physical sense, for they will live on in our memories and in heaven for all of eternity. Family and friends will tell their stories time and time again over the years. Most of them, anecdotes that almost seem like fairy tales, because the next generation of children will never really be able to believe what happened. I never could have believed such a thing could take place until it did. The victims and their stories, along with the events of 9/11, will never, ever be forgotten.

But on a day as cold as the darkest and bleakest day in winter, a spirit was reborn. From out of the rubble, from neighboring states, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, heroes were born. They were police officers, firemen, doctors, and civilians, who risked their own safety in an effort to try to save the life of a fellow man or woman. And then there were those who did not go directly to the disaster areas. They did whatever was humanly possible to help. They made donations, collected food and water, and comforted the vast amount of people who were affected by the tragedy. And they, along with the victims, cannot be forgotten. The American spirit shined brighter during that time than the torch the Statue of Liberty itself bears. I know that the victims of the tragedy would have been proud to see the way we reacted to such a horrible event.

In early November, I went to New York City and saw what we have come to call "ground zero." Being there is easily a hundred times more powerful than watching it on TV. In a city that never sleeps and is full to the brim with business and life, there is a large gap where the Trade Center once stood. During my visit to New York, I took the ferry from Staten Island to the city. I gazed at the Statue of Liberty as we went by, and couldn't help being overwhelmed by a love for my country. I never felt more proud to be American in my life. I thought back to that early September day, and watching it all unfold on the televisions in our classrooms. Although it felt like a long time ago, I know that the memory will never die. We will never forget the victims of that day, and the heroes that tried to do whatever they could to save them. Even though life moves on, we must never forget those people, and never forget that freedom is not free.

Mr. Longo

2002 Yearbook Dedication

Mr. Longo takes a "time-out" to display his warmth to the student body.

said, "He is a very hard worker and is dedicated to what he does. He deserves all the recognition in the world."

In 1969, Mr. Longo graduated from South Windsor High School. He chose to attend Southern Connecticut State University, where he double majored in Physical Education and Science. After graduating from Southern Connecticut, Mr. Longo was offered a job as a physical education teacher at Ellsworth Elementary School in South Windsor, Connecticut. Mr. Longo was then assigned to teach Biology courses at South Windsor High School. In 1997, Mr. Longo was offered the position of Athletic Director and he jumped at the opportunity.

In 1978, Mr. Longo married his wife, Barbara. The Longos, married 23 years, have three children. Ann, who is their oldest daughter, is 19 years old and attends the University of Connecticut. Jackie is 18 years old and is attending beautician school. Michael, the last of the Longos, is a freshman at Rockville High School and currently plays football for the Rams.

Mr. Longo's most memorable moment in education was back in 1991. The University of Connecticut awarded him the Biology Teacher of the Year Award for the state of Connecticut.

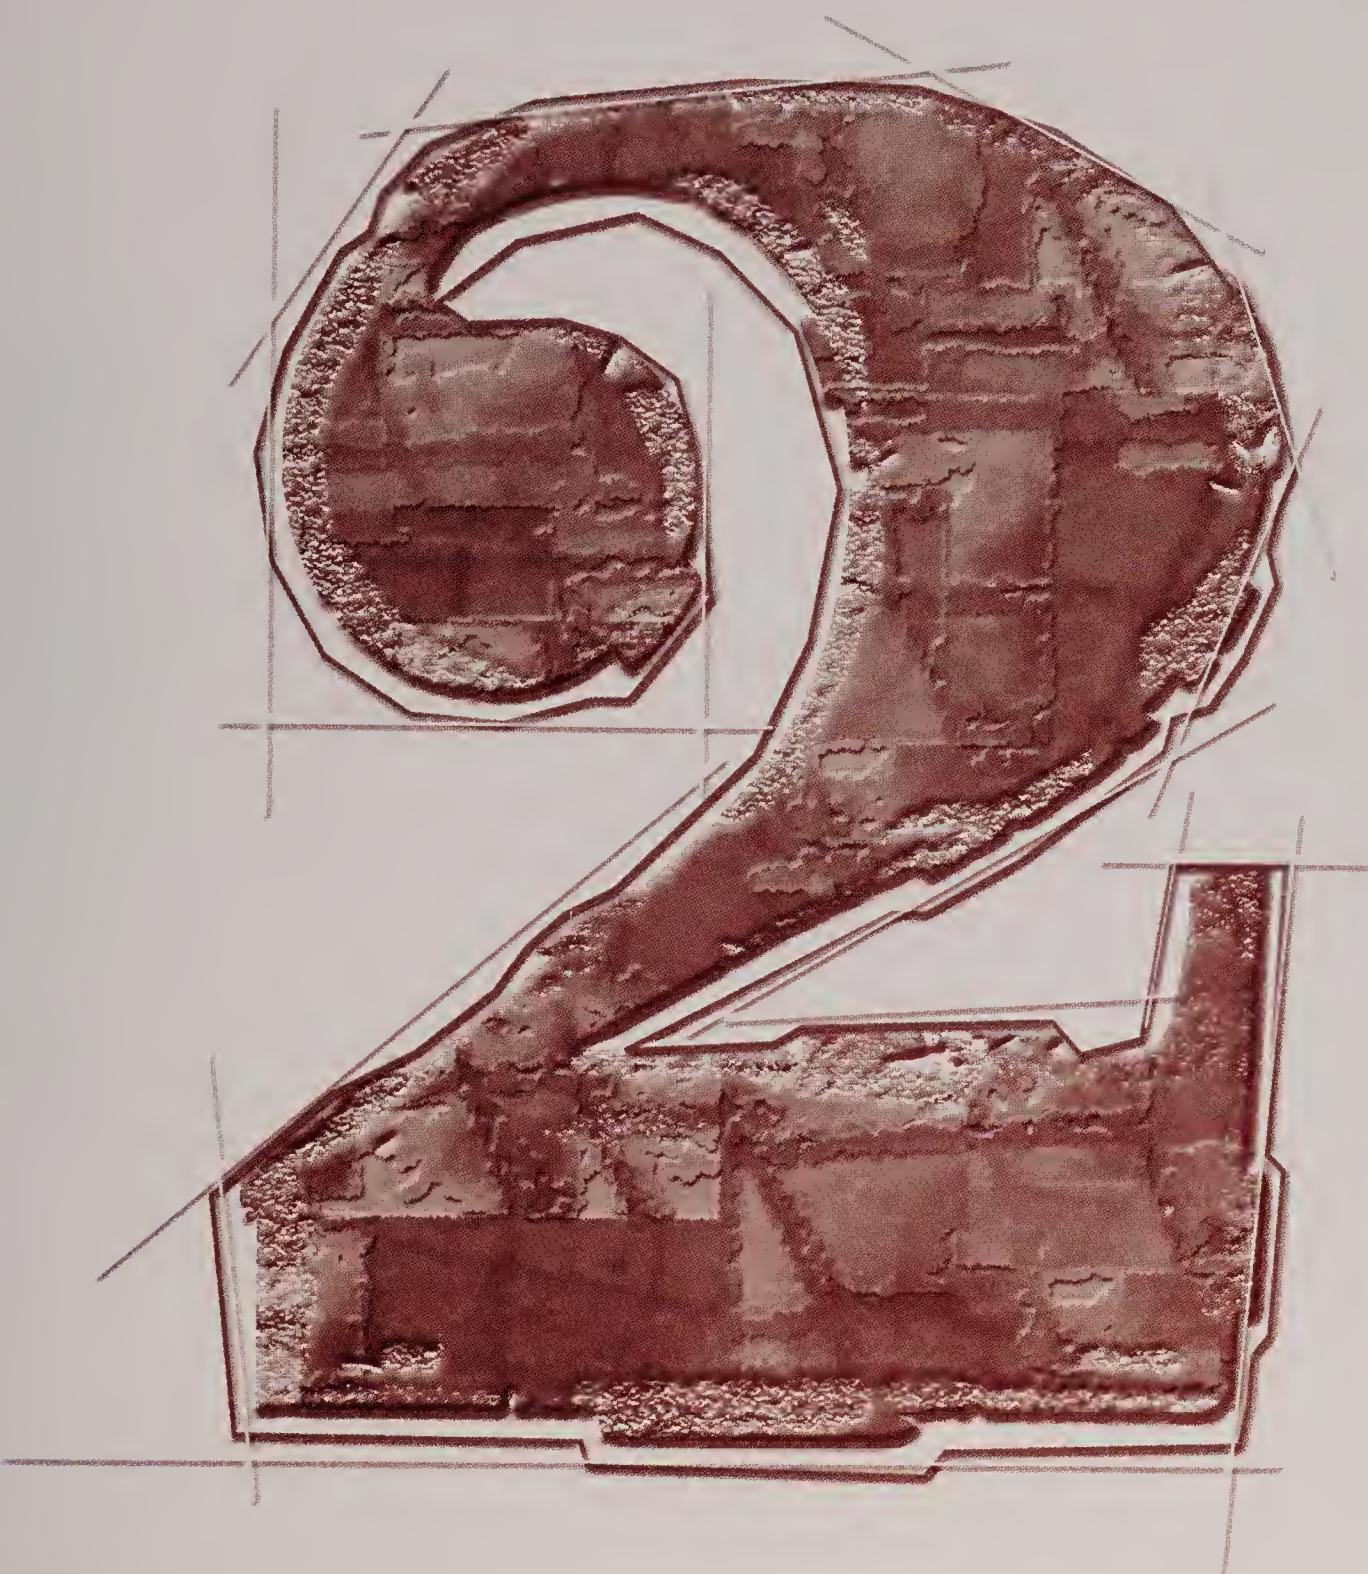

From the class of 2002, we would like to thank Mr. Longo for not simply being an Athletic Director and teacher, but for being a friend and a role model. Imagine if Mr. Longo's office walls could talk, what would they say about him?

1 Dad

The graduating class of South Windsor High School is honored to dedicate the 2002 Centurion Yearbook to Mr. Jack Longo. Over the past four years, Mr. Longo has brought nothing but smiles to our faces. He is the Athletic Director, as well as a physical education teacher. Mr. Longo is a former coach of the boys' soccer team and the baseball team. He has been teaching, coaching, and directing at South Windsor for 27 years. Mr. Longo has certainly earned the honor of receiving the 2002 Yearbook dedication. As a senior, Justin Kapisak

Mr. Longo gives up some time during his busy schedule to buddy up with seniors Paul Bajwa, Alex Maldonado, and Kim Boris.

Prom 2001: A Night to Remember Forever

Carlee McAlees, Nicole Athas, Thuy Nguyen, Ashley Parker, and Krysta Chamberland share a hug before heading out to the dance floor.

A group of senior boys get peped up for the great night ahead of them.

This group of girls show off how good they look in their elegant gowns.

Nikki Halle, Lauren Cessario, and Jackie Solomon pick this fountain as a great setting for a prom picture.

If you could have brought the celebrity of your choice to the prom who would it be?

"If I could have brought any celebrity I would have brought Britney Spears."

• Eric Fisher

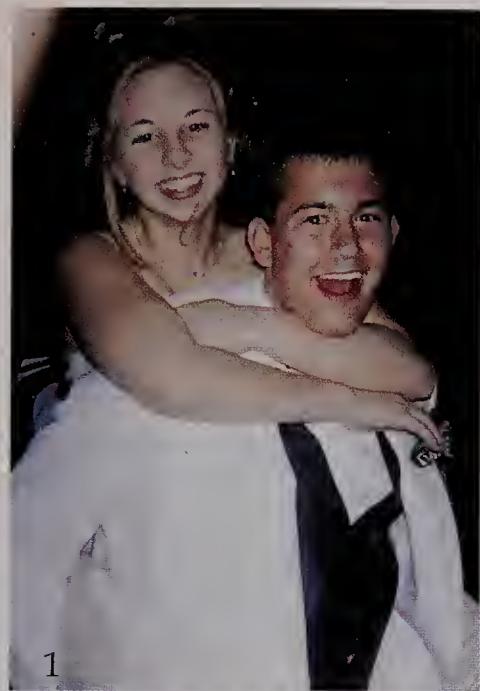

"I would bring the actor Heath Ledger to the prom, definitely."

• Denise Georgeady

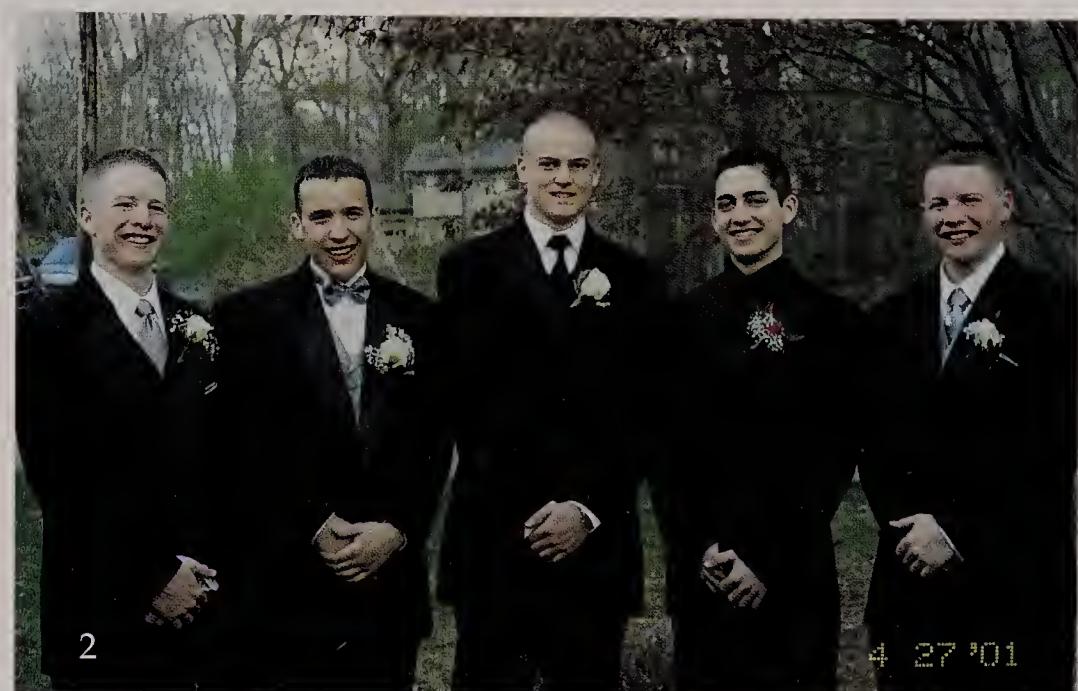

"I'd bring Toni Braxton because she's Toni Braxton and I'd want her to sing to me."

Unforgettable memories that will last forever took place on April 27, 2001 at Chez Josef in Agawam, Massachusetts. Many of the seniors had just as much fun getting to the prom as they did dancing, since a large number traveled in style. It was a bonding experience for everyone as they arrived in their sparkling gowns and tuxedos. Dancing the night away, they shared many smiles that turned into laughs that they will cherish forever. The following weekend many spent at the beach, Six Flags, or at friends' houses reminiscing about the events of the previous night. Overall, these were the moments, and they could not ask for more.

by Kim Boris

1~Zak Grillo looks excited as he gives Shannon Soucy a ride around the dance floor.

2~Long time friends Kyle Hildebrand, Scott Clouser, Christopher Motto, Mitch Nelson, and Matt Hildebrand wait for their dates to arrive.

3~Best friends Christina Hardesty, Ashley Raposo, Katie McClellan, and Amanda Rizzo cannot wait to get down on the dance floor.

6~ These dazzling girls show the tight bonds of friendship as they anxiously await for a wonderful night.

"I would bring Jimmy Fallon because he would make me laugh all night and he is dreamy."

• Meredith Gagnon

"I'd bring Rebecca Romijn-Stamos because she's a model and she seems fun to be with."

• Ryan Foley

"Definitely Michael Jackson because he's such a crazy dancer and it'd be so cool to go with him."

• Kara Fleet

And the Crowd Goes Wild

Spirit surrounded SWHS on the weekend of November 10th. This year the pep rally took place outside on the bleachers where students battled it out to see which grade truly had the most school spirit. A football game took place with the Junior girls versus the Senior girls where the Seniors won one to zero. Soon after, there was a M&M pie eating contest where the Seniors won, once again. All in all, the day was a huge success.

1~ And the crowd goes wild as the senior girls score a touchdown in their powder puff football game.

2~John Vildozola shows his class pride by defeating the underclassmen in the M&M pie eating contest.

3~Kim Olmstead, Melanie Lane and Sami Brownstein show off their senior shopping cart.

4~ Four freshman football players take a break from watching the game to pose for a picture.

5~A group of seniors gather around the Bobcat mascot to show their school pride.

What was the funniest part of this year's Pep Rally?

"When Jay Oliva stole Kim Olmstead and Sami Brownstein's shopping cart and ran away with it"

• Lauren Cadiz

"When a group of us upperclassmen girls went to jump over the fence to huddle with the football players after the game, and Kim Boris got stuck on the fence and ripped her jeans."

• Kristen Cleasby

"Probably when Sarah Coleman threw a cream pie in Jess Doolady's face and then they duked it out."

• Tommy Reichardt

Spirit Week with a Bobcat Touch

Spirit week is a week filled with fun, leading students up to the Homecoming Dance. This year our spirit days consisted of a Flashback, Clash, Celebrity, Dress Up, and Maroon and Gold Day.

Alex Maldonado as Marilyn Monroe, Kim Boris as Cindy Lauper, Scott Blozie as a Slipknot singer, Caitlin Westbrook as Scully from X-Files, and Bethany Post as Madonna in her cowgirl stage.

Letitia Young shows her school spirit as she clashes with stripes and plaid.

A look back in the past to see how hip high school really was with Clinton Baker and Kim Boris.

Laughing joyfully these upperclassmen actually realized how ridiculous they look in their clashing outfits.

Meredith Borque and Courtney King show their spirit as Britney Spears and Madonna.

Heather Goslee, Jennifer Soucy, and Stephanie Zemanek wear their prom dresses for Dress Up Day.

"I really liked Flashback Day because I've been a hippie for years and I finally got to wear the clothes I wanted to without being afraid."

• Alex Aries

What was your favorite day during Spirit Week?

"I would have to say Clash Day because it was the most fun to do."

• Sarah Ebrahimi

"Celebrity Day because I got to dress up like Robert Downey Junior."

• Nick Raphael

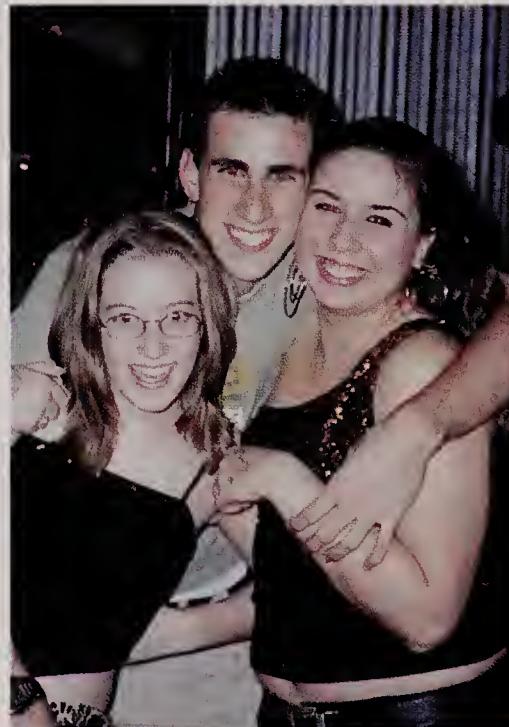

Welcome to the Jungle

Allie Hartnett, Lyndsey Przybylski, Karlie Garston, Molly Resetarits, Allison Pescik, and Kerry Savino.

This group of senior girls line up on the stairs showing off their outfits, before heading off to Homecoming.

This group of students show their excitement by posing on the dance floor.

Looks as if Erica Mello, Michelle Cyr, and Jenn Curtis are having fun by showing us how to do the jungle boogie.

What was your most memorable moment about Homecoming?

"I would have to say I thought the most memorable part was dancing with that special someone to the last song of the night."

• Matt Tobin

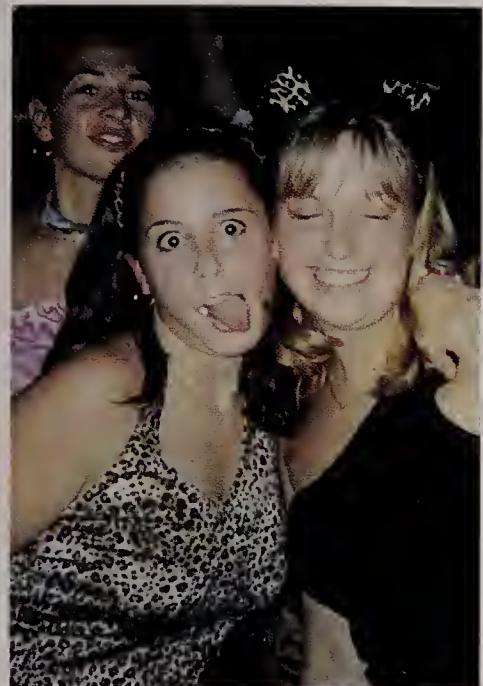

"I loved getting ready with my friend at her house before we went to the dance. We had so much fun!"

• Lindsey Richard

"I would have to say the decorations really helped the night to be more enjoyable. I especially liked the inflatable monkeys."

• John Heldmann

The Jungle was the theme for this year's Homecoming Dance. Students were decked out in animal print outfits to match the nicely decorated gym that brought out the jungle in everyone. The night was filled with fun and laughter as students got down and did the jungle boogie.

1~Erica Gittleman makes a face as Aimee Bornstein shys away from the camera.

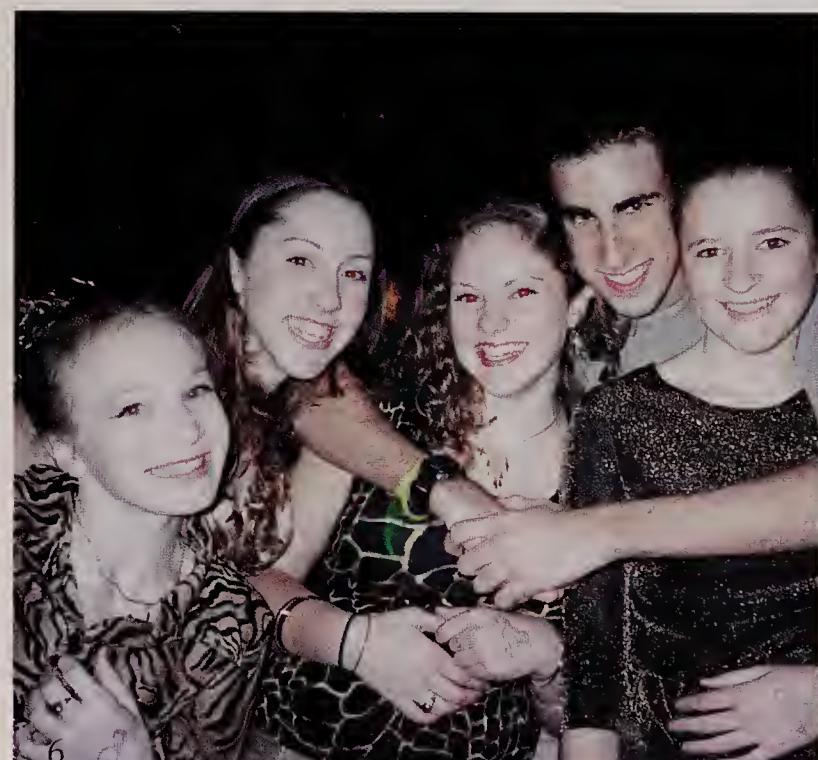

2~Michelle Cyr, Kim Boris, Jenn Curtis, and Erica Mello huddle around Mr. Longo for a great picture.

3~This group of junior girls seems pretty excited as they head into the Jungle.

4~Steve Chenard works hard to show us how he raves on the ground at Homecoming.

5~This group of senior girls is anxious to get to Homecoming in order to show off their sparkling animal outfits.

6~Looks like Ted Dougenik gets all the girls on the dance floor.

"I liked when the Petey Pablo song came on, and all the guys took their shirts off, put them in air, swinging them just like a helicopter."

Ryan Anderson

"Homecoming this year was a blast; however, the post Homecoming get together was the most fun and memorable time to me."

Erik Westerberg

"I think the best part was making my outfit with my best friend Aimee, but don't get me wrong the dance was great too!"

Jessica Girouard

Circle of Friends

Kim Olmstead and Amber Beaulieu look like a bunch of goof balls at Kimmy's house.

Clinton Baker shares great times with his friends Jen Cannada, Deya Freeman-Stavis, Justin Parmley, Jessika Holmes, and Samary Garcia.

What qualities do you look for in a friend?

"Someone that understands you in certain situations, always has to be up for an adventure, and is easy going."

• Aimee Bornstein

"Someone that enjoys the same things as I do, like snowboarding, and is also cool to chill with."

• Chris Terlaga

"A good friend to me is somebody who can keep a secret."

• Katie Eichelman

1~Katie Brower and Liz Harrison are ready for their disco dress-up day during their stay at 4-H camp this summer.

2~Good friends Andre Caraballo and Jared Kallet just chilling on a Friday night.

3~Junior girls Kristen Pressamarita, Nicki Groth, Liz Harrison, Mal Kaczmarek, and Lindsay Marotto show us how to have fun on their girls' night out.

4~This group of senior girls have some great smiles, but even greater bonds of friendship.

5~This group of seniors look pretty tired after waking up from a great night of dancing at the prom.

6~Seniors Paul Maximino, Matt Houle, and Mike Griffin smile cute as they cuddle with little chicks.

"A good friend is somebody you can count on, they have to be really nice and won't stab you in the back."

• Hera Jannat

"A good friend is someone who's trustworthy, friendly, and has a good personality."

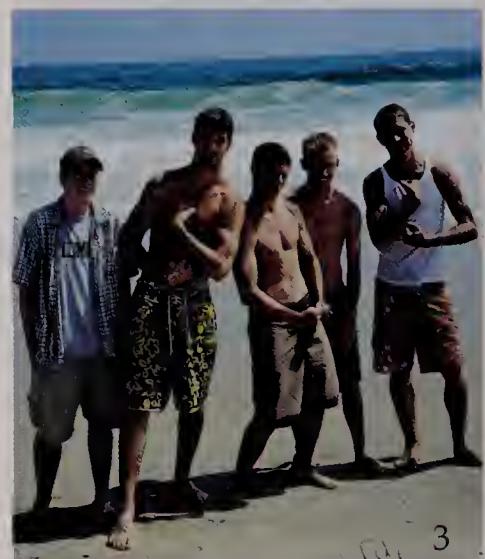

• Andrew Zadany

"I look for honesty, loyalty, and someone you can laugh with."

• Kara Sluboski

Summer, Summer, Summer Time

1~Emily Tully, Caitlin McCarthy, and Lisa Beechinor take time out of the sun to take a picture.

2~Senior, John Heldmann trying to be the ladies man.

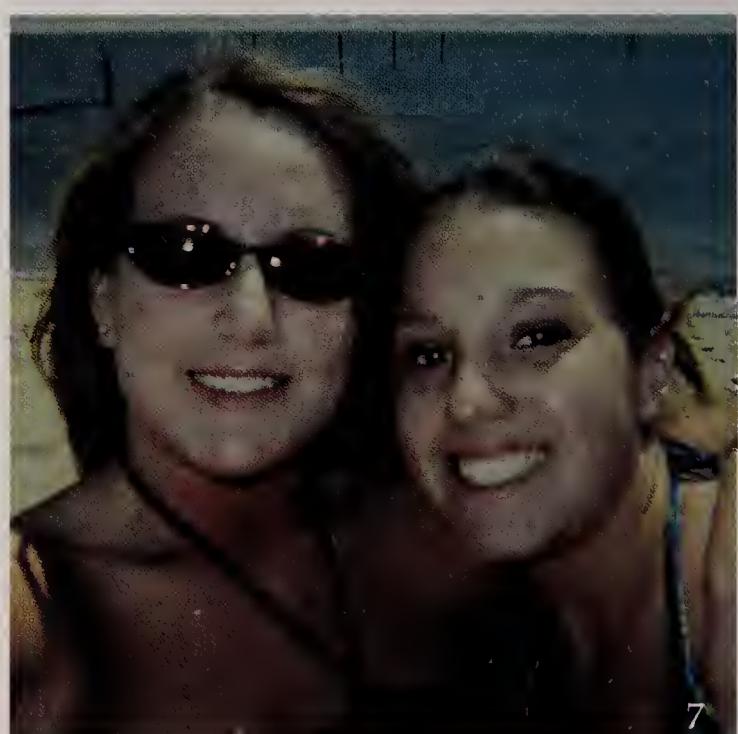

3~Eric McKeon, Jarod Korn, John Heldmann, James Ohliger, and Nate Buttermore show off their tempting muscles.

4~Jamie Hartnett, Christine Fontaine, Matt Reveley, Molly McBeth having fun during their summer Luau.

5~A group of great friends gather around at the beach for Amber Hovland's seventeenth birthday.

6~Friends attempting to make a pyramid at Misquamicut.

7~Jenn Curtis and Kim Boris smile cute for the camera while at Chalker Beach.

What is your favorite thing to do during the summer time?

"During the summer I like to go on vacation to foreign countries, and hang with friends."

John Landry

"For the last 3 summers my family and I have gone to China, and it has been a great experience."

Jackie Strong

"I think my favorite thing to do in the summer is something that everybody loves and just doesn't think about, and that's SLEEP."

Matt Houle

A Flash from the Past

A bunch of youngsters gather around to celebrate the Hildebrands' birthday old school style.

I thought only little girls played dress-up, but it look as if Scott Clouser and Jarod Korn do too.

Melissa Siracusa, Courtney King, and Liz Dunham flash a cute smile as they are drying off from being in the pool.

What was your favorite childhood outfit?

"I used to wear my headband, it was pink with a little bow on it."

• Jana Baseel

"When I was little I used to wear my clothes backwards, because I was Kriss Kross' number one fan."

• Clinton Baker

"My Pumpkin Halloween Costume."

How have you changed since freshman year?

"I've learned to worry about a lot less stuff. I've definitely become more mature and have become more of a thinker."

• Winston Johnson

"I've learned that what people think of me shouldn't matter, and if my friends like me no matter what, then that's really all I care about."

• Megan Bellody

"I went from a little freshmen whom my brother and his friends used to pick on, to a junior who now has some authority."

• Brittney Giberson

"I've matured overall as a human being. I've learned to respect other people for what they do."

• Mike Lambert

"I've learned not to care about what people think of others or myself. Life is all about being yourself and if you can't be yourself then you're not living a life."

Gregory Ramsdell- 35 years

“What has been your most memorable moment while teaching?”

Mr. Cloutman- “I have gotten the most satisfaction when a struggling student gets it. If I helped that student overcome some road blocks and become more successful learning mathematics, then I enjoy a special satisfaction or pleasure.”

Mr. Brown- “This year’s ‘most memorable moment’ was when the 2001 CAPT results came in and our South Windsor students had made significant gains in their science performance.”

Continued Success

During the 2001 season, the South Windsor varsity baseball program continued on the winning path. They finished the season with a 12 - 7 record, and made the state tournament for the 11th time in the last 13 years. Although the team missed winning the CCC East championship by a slight margin, it is obvious that the program's consistency is its strong point. Coach Harak was again proud of his team's success. "Our team received no recognition in the preseason from newspapers and polls, but we confounded the predictions," is how he responded to how the season went. "They worked hard and never gave up. Some people say that we overachieved, but I thought we had a balanced and confident team that practiced hard and achieved what they were capable of." In short, the team is a well-known program within the ring of baseball coaches throughout the state, and they are looking forward to another season of success in the 2002 spring season.

A Year of Rebuilding

In 2001, the Bobcat softball team encountered a bump in the road. The competition was high in their league, and they had some mental boundaries to overcome. They are looking forward to a rebuilding year in 2002, when a core of returning players will play for the varsity team. There will be challenges due to the loss of a few key players, and the team is hoping that the younger players can step up. Coach Ellis commented on the team by saying that he has a good bunch of kids playing, and he looks forward to watching them become successful. "I like coaching the girls because they listen. They are attentive and are happy to be wearing the uniform." He hopes to become the varsity coach in 2002, since varsity coach Sklar will not be returning. He admits that "There isn't a night when I don't think about the softball season." Clearly, if he becomes the new coach, the team will be in the hands of a man who truly cares about the program, and will get the team back on track.

Looking toward the future

After the Bobcats took a hard hit from graduation, losing a lot of key players from their championship season just two years earlier, they still had high expectations for the upcoming season. It was hard to replace all of the talent that they lost in just one season. The Bobcats struggled through the 2001 season with a 4-12 record. Even though the Cats struggled, they still gave it all they had every game. Next year they look forward to improving. They will have a lot of returning players so everyone is excited to strap it up another year. The Bobcats have high goals for next season. Coach Graham stated "You have to set your goals high in order to succeed." The Bobcats are going to come into the season looking to play for the Northern Championship. The Cats will be ready, Coach Graham is a championship coach and he will make sure that his kids are ready for anything that stands in their way. The Cats cannot wait to get a piece of rival Conard.

A Challenging Season

This year's season was full of ups and downs. The team had a lot of talent and there was a lot of desire to do well. However, the team was met with tough competitors and suffered several injuries. But the girls never gave up because they just wanted to play the game. The girls were a very united group that participated in social events in and out of school, including the charity walk for cancer. Their record was 4-8-1 overall and 3-4 in the conference. Coach Duclos mentioned that, "We had a great win against Windsor, who is a tournament team. We were expected to lose, but we came through with a big win." Duclos also mentioned, "The addition of the ninth grade team solidified the high school program. And although the win-loss record wasn't impressive, the team was able to keep the core together so the future looks bright." The team looks forward to a great season next year with over a dozen returning seniors.

Conference Domination

The golf team once again enjoyed a large amount of success during the 2001 season. They went undefeated in the CCC East for the third year in a row, winning another conference championship. A core of talented seniors and upcoming underclassmen enjoyed a great season. Coach Myslinski had nothing but nice things to say about his team. "The year was a culmination of a ten year effort. Even though we haven't always had terrific tournament success, our team amazes me with their camaraderie." The team was a tight knit group that was always looking out for each other. "You say golf is an individual sport, but you can't tell me that if you look at those guys, because you'll see that it is definitely a team sport." Unfortunately, Coach Myz will not be coaching next year, but he has left a program in his wake that is consistently in the top 5 in the state, and is prepared to continue to do so.

South Windsor tennis continued on a track for success in the spring of 2001. The boys' and girls' teams both showed that they could more than hold their own against the competition. The boys' team ended up CCC East Champs. They achieved this by winning the last five games of the season; an impressive run. They kept their streak of conference success alive with this improbable run to close out the year. While the boys' team maintained consistency, the girls' team also had a great year. They made an appearance in the state tournament, raising the standard for South Windsor girls' tennis. The team hopes to continue on this winning track in the years to come, and to maintain the unity that helped them win last season. In the end, both teams had great seasons and hope to continue this trend into 2002 and beyond.

The Long Journey Ahead

Over the last five years, the varsity boys' volleyball team has strived to have an overall winning record. They have been 3-2. Coach Williams, along with a hard working team, added another winning season, with a record of 11-7. The boys' volleyball team has been fighting to become a CIAC competitor for the last five years, due to the fact that there are only 36 teams in the state. In the 2001 season, with only two players at the varsity experience, many of the junior varsity players had to step up and play to their potential. Many of these players worked hard in the off season and became varsity contenders. Coach Williams predicts that the 2002 season will be a successful season. With height and the starting center returning, they are well off. Williams said, "We are never out of the game; no team has ever dominated us. If we lost it would be in the final game." We all hope that the boys' volleyball team becomes a CIAC team and a contender in the future.

Another Successful Season

The boys' team once again enjoyed success in 2001. They finished the season with a 10-4 record, with several members of the team making the state tournament. During the season, it seems to be the camaraderie that makes the difference. The South Windsor girls' and boys' cross country teams are very close, and stick together. Senior Dave Kozak said that he enjoyed the season and the times that the two teams spent together. "Coach Geraghty was the man. And running through cornfields every once in a while is relaxing" is what he had to say about the season. With a good core of leadership returning next season, the Bobcats look to be in a good position to keep up the good work. They will look forward to continued success in 2002.

Still Going Strong

The girls' cross country team continued their strong running tradition in the 2001 season that South Windsor has upheld for many years. They finished with a 16-2 overall record, and easily qualified for the state tournament. They also were ranked in the top ten for the fourth straight year. This year's team showcased a core of senior leaders that have been together for a long time. In addition to the seniors, a few new faces helped them to achieve their impressive season. Because of this, Coach Stoklosa is optimistic for next season. He believes that even with the loss of his three senior co-captains, he has many strong runners coming back to the program next year. Coach Stoklosa commented, "They are truly wonderful young women who worked very hard and achieved the success they deserved." South Windsor's cross country program looks to be in good shape for the future.

A Season Of Perseverance

This year's field hockey team had an unbelievable season. Losing only 2 regular season games and ending ranked 9th in the state, CCC East Champions, and 3rd in the class, the team felt proud of their vast accomplishments. Although the team is skilled, it wasn't just pure skill that got them to the state semi-finals. This year's team was tight, as there were nine seniors who have played together since Timothy Edwards. Coach Kirkpatrick said, "There was a lot of senior leadership in addition to the three captains. The underclassmen were able to really develop and benefit from playing with so many experienced players." She also mentioned how there was such a wide spread amount of talent on the team with seven different people contributing to goals and assists, which is a lot. Some highlights from the season were the triple overtime win versus Farmington that brought them into the semi-finals on turf at UConn and being undefeated 5-0 in the conference. Coach said it was, "a season of perseverance because it took us so long to get into the top ten and a loss to Granby to get us prepared for Farmington." The team looks forward to an equally successful season next year.

The CCC East Conference Champions

Bobcat pride was alive and well in South Windsor this season. The Cats posted a 7-3 record and were the conference champions. The Cats also crushed Rockville on Thanksgiving day and brought the trophy back home where it belongs. If you came to a Bobcat football game, you saw the passion that the Cats played with throughout the whole season. Senior captain Justin Kapisak stated "We never gave up, no matter what happened. We always knew that we would end up on top at the end of the game. That is why we are champions." A big reason why the Cats were so successful this season was because of the closeness of the players. No matter what challenge was in the way of the Cats they took it on together, not letting anything get in the way of what they were looking to accomplish. Next year, the Cats are looking to improve even more. They only lose 9 seniors and are returning some very good players such as starting Quarterback Kevin Kapisak, Running Back Jermaine Hastings, and Line Backer Matt Shonty just to name a few. They will be the leaders for next year's team for the goals that they accomplish.

Boys' Soccer

A Step Above and Beyond

The boys' soccer team surprised us all with an impressive 11-3-2 record and placing 12th in the state tournament. They started off the season with a 4-0 record which was put to a stop after losing to E.O Smith. Coach Craig Williams said, "This year's success was due to the vast amount of hustle and overall great desire this year's team showed on the field." All conference goalie James Ohliger had an amazing season, with an impressive 11 shutouts. This led the Bobcats to the best overall record in the last five years. With 14 seniors the boys' soccer team had a strong sense of leadership. In the state tournament, the boys made it to the quarter finals. On the way to beating Simsbury 2-0, they traveled to Staples, the 4th team in the state, defeating them in penalty kicks 1-0. The Bobcats then traveled to Naugatuck, where they lost 2-1. The Bobcats showed us all that we are contenders for the CCC East Championship.

Girls' Soccer

A Memorable Season

The 2001 South Windsor girls' soccer season was a memorable one for everyone on the team. Their overall record was 14-4 and they were CCC East Champions. The team went on to the quarter-finals of the state tournament where they suffered an unbelievable loss in overtime. The girls owe a lot of their success to their coach, who happened to be pregnant during the season. Everyone on the team was really close and they were said to have some crazy pasta parties. Some highlight games include the one versus Manchester where the Bobcats went on to win in overtime with 22 seconds left on a goal scored by Kara Fleet.. Also, the win against E.O.Smith where the girls went on to tie for the CCC East title, and the win in the home game against Manchester to go on to win the title, outright. Coach Hostetler said, "I was really proud of them and how they pulled through and never missed a beat while I was gone. It was my most memorable season." The team truly worked toward all their goals, and accomplished every one. They look forward to an equally great season next year.

Girls' Volleyball

A Season to Remember

The girls' volleyball team started their season in August with a very determined attitude. The Cats knew they could be competitive throughout the season. The Girls ended with only three losses, two of them to conference rival E.O. Smith, and another to the number one team in the state Maloney. They were led by senior captains, Laura Burrill and Diana Gamache. Their leadership was a big reason why the Cats were so successful this season. The Cats biggest win of the year came against rival Rockville on senior night. This was one game that the Cats really wanted to win and they did. The girls' finished the season with a conference record of 12-2 that would be good enough for a second place finish. The Cats put their all into every game and never gave up no matter what obstacle they encountered. Senior Captain Laura Burrill stated " We gave it our all in every game I am really happy with the way that we played this season." The Cats were a young team and are only losing 4 seniors so there is room for improvement, and the expectations for next years team are high. They are returning junior leaders, Lauren Roulier, and Kaitlin Westbrook for next season. They were a big part of the team's success this season, so they will be looked upon as leaders to lead their team to a championship.

Weathering the Storm

Although the 2002 season had its ups and downs, there were several bright spots along the way. Lead by a group of seniors, the team battled through a season playing against tough competition. After much tough competition during the season; they still achieved a winning record and a respectable year. The season culminated with a great win in a close game against the rival town of Rockville, and the team made it to the state tournament once again. Senior Justin Kapisak said "It was fun sweeping Rockville and ending up with a winning season for the second year in a row. I can tell that our program is going to continue to get better over the coming years." Even though they did not play to the top of their game this year, you can see that the players still had a good time playing for South Windsor. Next season the Bobcats will be back with a group of underclassmen hoping to return to CCC East Champion form.

Girls' Basketball

The Beginning of a Bright Future

This year's season was a building one for girls' basketball. There was a new junior varsity coach and a lot of young players on the court. By the end of the season there were only two seniors and the team was led by a strong junior class, including Kim Niederwerfer and Anne Rounce. This season was the strongest one the team has had in the past four years. An important aspect of the season was that the team still managed to meet all of their goals. There were several close games against CCC East competitors. At the end of the season they were second in the conference, close on the heels of the first place team. They were also able to earn a home game bid in the first round of the state tournament. Though they were not victorious in this first round game, they didn't give up until the end. This season was a great starting place for a bright future.

Gymnastics

A Year of Determination

This year the girls gymnastics team had a very successful season. They placed 2nd in the conference and moved on to place 4th in the state in class M gymnastics. Early in the season the team was handicapped with the injuries of two of the top three gymnasts on the team in one meet." The girls showed great team unity as they came together and defeated these injuries and they also overcame many obstacles," said Coach Wlodarczyk. The team was held together by strong captains Jamie Hartnett and Lauren Cessario. They both showed great team commitment and leadership helping the younger teammates succeed in their events. Jamie Hartnett exceeded 1,000 points in her high school career which is a great achievement. Coach Wlodarczyk is looking forward to next year's season. Even though they well be losing five seniors, she hopes for strong freshmen and great outcomes from Katie Love and Britney Capson.

Looking to Rebuild

The Bobcats this year overcame many ups and downs. Even though the Cats had a losing season, they stuck together and played hard until the last minute. With only five seniors, this year was thought to be a year of rebuilding. In years to come they will blossom into a strong team led by All-Conference player Mike Weinzimmer. Senior Captain Frank Lacapruia, who was selected as an All-Conference player said, "The best thing that happened this year was that we beat Simsbury. The arena was packed with people and it was senior night. It was the best way to end the season." Next year, the Cats look to leave past losses behind and hope to place in the state tournament.

Indoor Track

Running Away With Success

The Indoor Track team came to play this year. There were a lot of successful athletes that participated on the track team this season. They were a very young team that has a very promising future. There were seventy-five kids that ran track this season with only two coaches to guide them. Because the player to coach ratio was very high, the members of the team had to take it upon themselves to improve on their skills and performance without someone constantly watching and pushing them to do their best. The Indoor Track team will be very successful in years to come. The senior leadership really taught the underclassmen a lot. The senior leadership also led the Cats all the way to the state tournament, where the team was led by Chris Barrett and Jermaine Hastings for the boys. Tiffany Skinner and Nicole Athas led the girls.

A Season of Determination

The Cats came out this season looking to compete. They were a very young team that gave it their all every day in practice, and put up a fight in every match that they played in. They had a couple of very good wins against some very good teams such as Wethersfield, Newington, and Manchester just to name a few. Senior Captain Nick Venoutsos led the Bobcats attack this season and was a big reason why they won some of the matches that they won. The Cats will come out hungry as ever next year. The Cats are only losing four seniors so every one will have more experience, which needed in order to keep the program on the rise and where Coach Knapp wants to bring the program which is one of the best in the state. Junior wrestlers, John Keys and Sean Panora, are going to have to be the leaders out there so they can bring the program to the top.

Senior Players

Top Row: Zohaib Rasheed, Justin Richards, Nick Venoutsos, and Jessica Girouard

"We worked hard for everything that we accomplished this year. I am glad that I was a part of the team and I am looking forward to continue on next year."

Junior John Keys

"It was a fun season. If we would have stayed healthy throughout the season then I think that we would have had much more success."

Senior Nick Venoutsos

All Conference and All State Players

The South Windsor sports community has always been very competitive. This year was very successful due to the strong leadership of so many players. There were no singular super stars or one man shows. This years athletic teams were full of talent, shown by the large number of players who achieved recognition as All-Conference and All-State players. Congratulations to all the players who were recognized for these awards in the 2001 and 2002 sporting seasons.

First, I have to say it's been fun and SW knows how to have a good time. Word up to my hard hittin' Cats from football, congrats, and to Clouser, I don't regret it. X-country was a high-quality time and Kozak; you need a shoe to beat me. Chillin with the ballerz on Sat with rec., to the Irish good luck and I hope next season is a little better. We thuggin in indoor and the playaz club will always live on, Amen. Rev. Oakwood was no doubt crazy, week in and out. "Watch the Boards," yea right, hit hard, score often and don't be a punk on the ground balls. Lax is where it's at, and we'll show 'em all this year (writing in Dec. so if we don't perform excuse this statement). All ya are kings and you will tear it up next year. Latin, God where do I start, we had some times eh. Chris2 and Chris3 will thug out for all eternity, and Barrett, keep practicin your Madden skills. Ladies and Gentlemen it's been great, good luck to all y'all and get after life.

The lunch table constitution, pointless stories of the day, triathlons, good times at Julie's, "the dip", darts, scoochie, welfare donuts, Spartacus, Jane, Alfonso Merkins, game nites, Bob-O, AP study, gumbint, sledding, summer concert '01, and crazy adventures... they really have been "good times." Thank you to everyone who has crossed my path or been part of my life, especially my chicas, for I truly have "gotten by with a little help from my friends." I've learned that no matter what it'll be over before you know it, you'll remember the good things, and whether or not you anticipated the future the time is right. It is our time. "Happiness is a journey, not a destination," enjoy every day. Good luck everyone! Hugs to Mom, Dad, and Larisa for encouraging me and laughing "with" me. Left to SWHS: Erin ('09) and all of Devonshire.

Finally, I'm out! Leigh Ann, through thick and thin you've had my back. Thank you. All the good times hopping around like dust bunnies with Mike and Jerry in Niantic. "Michelle, are you with me?" Adventures at the Elmore's, NYC, trippin around the school. Amber, Friday night adventures. Thanks for everything. Sami, rides in East Windsor everyday. "Watch out for that pole!" To the crew, fifth period adventures and the Sun Sun fiasco lives in infamy. Shout outs to my boys. Mom and Dad, thanks for giving me the push I needed. Jennifer, what can I say, I learned from the best. Thanks for all the advice. Left to South Windsor High, Anna, represent the Amodio name. To all the people that criticize, "If you don't like my fire, then don't come around, because I'm gonna burn one down" Peace.

Big A, Vendetta

High School has been great and it's finally over. So many memories have been had and I owe it all to my friends. The squad keepin it real for the last four years, all the girls keeping it interesting. Prom '01, Dan's beach house, Kassie's, the stone, the spot, sanctuary, Moe's van, little red, Friendly's with Kerry, Justin, and Kassie. My special friend Nikole, you've meant a lot to me, I will miss you. Cram and scram, flagpoles, Suraj's, the store. Thank you for your two years of service. Going to Paul's, late night, good times on school nights. Good times over the summer at Dave shows. The trio, keep scoring points into college. Left to SWHS, my Nicki, Boomer, Kailey, Lorenson, and Bry Max, who I hope, will take over as the next Big A.

Four years of memories, with me for the rest of my life. Pasta parties, sleepovers, Big Cookies, pizza with my XC girls. Krysta-my Sis, gas station guys, AM runs, Reno, Schwabby, Toby... Operation: Over Easy. Walk, Talk and Stalk. Shoppin in Cars' closet. Basketball games. Who's hot? Exactly! Thuy-caww not cawk! Thanks Amber, Ashley and family for the All Nighter, Prom, hot tubbin, the bus, star room, hittin' jumps. Tiff thanks, four homecomings, seven Nationals, captains, roadtrips, guys, GMRC. My crew Xtreme Bowling! Tiger, our incredible luck. Prom, breaking down twice, beach house, crazy nights, Taco Bell and so much laughter. Mom and Dad you pushed and supported me in everything. I love you for it! Chris I am proud of you and I'll miss you. Left to SWHS: XC girls never change! Sabos, Superhero, Tiger, Eric W and everyone that's made me smile. Thank you.

These were some memorable four years, from the great bus rides with my Guju girl for life (Pak on the weekends, just admit it), to meeting up "half way," and trying to get corrupted. Won't happen guys! My lunch partner, "Correcto?" And my other girl, Thuy. We're tied alright? Laughing hyena, Amanda. I'll always remember representing all our colors during Activity with our race wars! You know we had the most diverse table in there. Can't forget my desi people. They'll get our names right someday Usman, random one. The drama filled, TGI "surprise birthdays" "Alright, anywayz, you can catch me anyday!" Right, Soniya, you lazy! Our English field trip in entrepreneur was the best, or was it French? Ammi a Daddy, love you always, and my big sis, Summer, thanks for all the favors. Take care guy

"These are the moments..." Great times with my friends who have made it so special for me over these last four years. Council member meetings with my boys Spiegel, B-man ("Yeaaya"), Moose, and Korn. "Excellent Soak maan, soak of the year". Mike you truly are a great friend, you've been there with me through thick and thin, you're the best! Big P, Kristen and Mommy P, thanks so much for everything. To my volleyball girls thanks for the good times. Alka (slick) you will always hold a special place in my heart. Thanks C-dog (or should I say K-dog). Highlights: Newport nights, Prom 2001, DMB concerts, crazy volleyball games, good times senior year, and endless BajMahal nights. To my brother Mr. St. Jean thanks for the advice. Mom, Jasmine and Bableen thanks for being there for me, I love you.

Allison Marie Bak

I will never forget all of the memories. Fun times with Amber, Meredith, Jackie, Nikki, Lauren, Andrea, Thuy, Amanda, Jason and more. Dance team was great with Amanda and Anna in '99, '00. I love tennis team with Thuy, Ashley, and Amber, '01, '02. Thuy first doubles partner. I will never forget prom '01. Amber you are the best, and the sister I never had. So many memories with you skiing, at 'N Sync concerts, prom, and your wonderful family. Good times at Pancho Loco with Nikki, Jackie, Meredith, and Lauren. Kickboxing with Lauren and Jackie is awesome. Meredith, Enfield mall will never be forgotten. Shopping with you guys is always an adventure. Thanks for being there for me. Amanda blood is thicker than water. Jonathan in 6 years I will take you for a tour. Jason you are my right hand and I'll miss you. Mom and Dad thank you. My heroes, I love you. I leave this to Jason, my bro.

Clinton Baker

Clint, Da Rev, Reverend

Over my past four years here I've made a lot of friends and I've lost a lot, but the ones who were my real peeps stood by me no matter what. To the Dirty Fam my bro Brandon (Proph), Jermaine (Baby Ja), Steve (Reverend Red), Dom (PR Pastor), Erik (Deacon Wes), and all my proteges. To all my others Deya, Jessika, it's time for us to bounce. To everyone still stuck here: Don Wan, Ahsaan, Kev, and Triple G; hold it down while I'm gone. I'll never forget anyone I met here. Much love to my Moms who made sure I got all my work done and my Old Mamas who taught me everything I know. Last but not least to all my ladies Mello and Kimmy (Jungle Feva Forever), and of course the Clinton Baker Fanclub (you know who you are). I need my crew to keep it real and stay reppin the Dirty Fam even without the Reverend. Much love and much luck, but its time for me to "Rollout" (Ludacris).

the was money, and high school a stock, then I made a profit. At least I made more than I would have been apprenticed to bksmith. Four seasons and one very sweet championship to the question: what now? Shhh. Council meetings at Ajahal, State sanction beatdowns, eyes still burnin from grill at "Fiesta, Fiesta," post-win Teddy's, basketball games, guy shootin out the lights, it is all good. Note to all my icon' Cats: next year, one championship doesn't cut it.

Thanks to all my family, friends, and teachers for helping me through these four years. I'll miss high school, especially movie nights with pictionary, Julie's dip. We've come a long way from freshman year's lunch table constitution, but it's been fun doing projects for gobierno, "soccer", Spartacus, field hockey with Score Now Guy, watching Malcolm, physics and calculus cram sessions, doing Kennedy accents with Sam, the annual search for free stuff, "The Rock is the best movie ever", Camp '00, "Da Goods". To Julie Dunbar: I will be the first surgeon in space. To Amy, Lauras, Kristin, Susan, Julie, and Sam, thanks for putting up with my spaz attacks and pointless stories of the Good luck guys! Thanks Mom and Dad, I couldn't have done it without you.

Alright guys, it's been fun, I know I'm going to see some of you after this high school thing is over but I'm fully aware that this year is the last time I'm able to laugh and joke around with some of you. For the people that know me well, you know I'm not good at saying good-byes so I'm going to remember the good times. Matt, I know you like my singing. Thuan, keep it real T.J., "Don't get hurt!" Nick, I'll always remember the good times in NYC, the line up of the bands were great. And then, there's Amanda. You know you will always have a place in my heart and I won't ever forget you. You were always there when I needed someone to talk to. In hoping to see you after all is said and done here at high school, as I do for all my friends. To people I haven't talked about, forgive me, I will miss all of you and I hope I'm never forgotten.

The memories that I have made will forever be a part of me. To all my girls you have left huge imprints on my heart that I will never lose. Jen, thank you for telling me about Zorro, Ahbodo, May, prom '01, the car ride with Ross, Home away from Home. Leigh-Ann, Summer '01, workin, beach, Hartford, and all the amazing times we spent together. Erin, Michelle, Are you mine! How we wasted our time together my little dust bunnie. Amer, Family Values '01. QueenB, We have been through so much together, drive bye's, Sun-Sun, Trip's to Shemo's, Valentine's day and so much more. You are my dog for life! Julie, try to make the best out of your two years, always know that I love you. Mom and Dad thank you for everything I love you so much! Honey, I love you and know that you are watching over me always remember life goes on!

I can't believe it's all over. These last four years have been an adventure. I have learned a lot about others and myself. Remembering all the good times with my boys and my girls. Greg, you've been my boy since day one, unforgettable nights in Dave's room, snowboarding. Thanks for all the good times. Dave, What an experience! Adventures in the crib, near death sun-fire "Chill Man" rides in peace land, our scams, Why don't they work? Boys for life has for keeping me in line. Kimmy-B, what happened to our creek? Denise, you've been here since I can remember, watching comedy central, my wedding theory, near, near, near, parties, never forgotten, love ya. Rachel, what did I tell you, we knew what would happen in the end, always loved. To everyone, in the end not everything was predicted but every day will be remembered. Thanks mom for always giving me a hard time, I would have never made it without you. Left to SWHS Brian 06' and Liz 08'.

It was a great four years but I'm glad it's over! Italy trip '01! Hello Dolly, freshmen followers Rachel, Cristi, Alka to name a few: West Side Story, The plays and singing. Brandon, normal, Woodworth yeah, thank you day, oh man, y'all? Oh man Shaun, Surfing and Cutlass! Why does Bass hate mega man? Because. Am I normal? Jason all your base, DBZ, could he be? Diablo in April vacation, online era, Mr. Frank! Mr. Lotreck! Mrs. Blocker! Circle hard, random. My sis still subbing in SW! Bye my Spectrum pals, you were great, miss me terribly! Xtreme bowling, nights on the town, Steph prom '01 I couldn't forget! Four years of Latin, love y'all! Thanks to all my favorite teachers and my old friends from the class of '01 I miss you all, Mike and Em too! I know people are sad that we're leaving but this is only the first day of the rest of our lives! Let's live it up!

Even though I started here as a junior, the past two years have been full of great memories. Trips to the Dunham's beach house. Extreme ping pong with James. BajMahal nights and the hot tubs. Late summer night excursions, Craig how do you silence a cricket? Good times crashing in the van. Curb jumping in the burb. Bus ride conversations with the volleyball team, juepa! That's what she said and Your mom. "Free" golf at E. Hartford. Two seasons of rec ball. The quest for tickets at DMB. Prom and homecoming weekends. And of course math homework, running, and eating dinner with Liz. I want to thank all of my friends for being cool when I was the new kid. I also want to thank my mom, dad, bro, and sis for always being there. And you know who you are, I'll always love you baby...thanks for everything.

Who would have thought that four years of my life could have gone by so fast? In there I had many great memories I'll never forget. I will always remember the school functions, the fun times playing rec. basketball, to figuring out what I want to do in life and everything else I have done. They have all helped me grow and see the world differently. I made many new friends and kept many old ones. Great times: Up In Smoke '00, Homecoming '01, Summer '00, Summer '01 with the crew, Rec. Ball '99-'02. To my friends: All of you mean so much to me and no matter where we end up next year I just want you to know that and you will never be forgotten. You all know who you are. Mom, Dad, Jon, Grandma, you all mean the world to me and stuck by me throughout everything no matter how much of a pain I was and I just wanted to say, Thank You.

Well, overall these past four years have been a great experience. I have gained many great friendships and tons of knowledge along the way. Most of the good times spent chillin with the boys. Long car rides with Kallet "Shadyville", video gaming it up at Bri's (care Bri?), late night noodles with Duy and his bro Bob, late night talks and close calls (Dunkin Donuts) with Greg, nights spent in the basement with Frankie and his killer dog, many nights at Kallet's, living at Duy's (shouts to trannie and eight), chillin at the beach with Burnham (stalkers), being the late night rebel with Duy and riding our bikes like animals with Frankie. Also chillin at Kassic's, long games with Suraj, a few Bonfires, dream team with Shep, definitely four years of basketball with all the boys. Special memories with Nikki(never forgotten), thanks for everything! To Mom, Dad, J, and Steph, thanks for all the love and support, I love you guys! PEACE SWHS!

To years I'll never relive, and memories that will never be forgotten. Great friends, Kass, Lis, Em, Stac, many laughs and good times! DMB, 'N Sync with Rosie unforgettable! Karen, Kara, Michelle, Burrill I'll cherish your friendship forever, a million laughs with you all: EW, random nites, victims, UConn, powder puff, 104, parties at Kass', Home Depot, hotels. Times with my two best friends. I'll never forget Ker and Melis, you guys mean the world to me, I don't know what I would do without you! Tubin, karaoke, eatin, pre gamin, and RHS forever. To the guys, crazy times. To Lauren and Nora, I'm so glad I have had you guys in my life, you always bring me smiles and laughs. To my family, I love you all. Thanks for always being a great influence. Ryan, I love you and I am proud of you. To my sista Kristen I leave the school to, I love you. My class; go confidently in the direction of your dreams, and live the life you have imagined.

I've realized that without my family, I'd be a lost soul. I'm fortunate to live everyday knowing they exist in my life. My friends: Kassie, my sister from the beginning of time; Andrea, who understands me like no one else does; Allison, a sensational person with exquisite character; Meredith, a true blessing in my life; Nicole, who's inspired me to be a better person; and my friend Jackie, who's never given up on me and who's taught me about the word determination. To Jams and Shannon, you make life more exciting, thank you. My only hope is that these beautiful people stay happy and healthy and live a fulfilling life that hopefully I can stay a part of. I love you all very much. In the words of a woman who's the most caring and compassionate person I have the pleasure knowing, "Remember that the universe will always take care of you."

"I always knew looking back on the tears would make me laugh, but I never knew looking back on the laughs would make me cry." Throughout these past four years I have developed the most amazing friendships. Nicole you are my sister, my other half. Jared and Paul, thanks for teaching me how to smile. Jen and Jen you have been there for me through thick and thin. I will miss you guys! Jay, I'll never forget our time together and how you've changed my life. Every laugh, smile, hug, and tear will never be forgotten. The unforgettable memories of prom, all nighter, homecomings, snowballs, Craig David, pasta parties, x-country sleepovers, and talks with Lauren and Erica will always be cherished. Mom and Dad, I am the luckiest daughter in the world. Your unconditional love and support means everything to me. I love you more than words can say!

Time to start the real journey. The journey of life. Thanks to all my friends. I'm hard to get along with most of the time but you stuck by me. Heather you'll always be in my heart, I'll never forget you. Kiera and Ashley you were great friends and for that I'm grateful. Liz and Megan over my three years of knowing you, you've become family, without you I wouldn't be here. I love the both of you. To all my boys it's been fun. Jeff and Bo you been down since day one. Anything you need I'm there for you. Duy thanks for always being my boy. Last but not least Scottie, I don't know how to thank you for just being Scottie. You'll be missed greatly. Activity ball with my boys. Look at this time as not the end of a chapter but the beginning of a new one. My last words of advice are that in the end everything is a gag.

What fun times I had while here at SWHS. From starting the corner our freshman year with Matt, Aakar, Curtis, and I. To now all of us going to graduate in the spring! We have all had our ups and down from day one. Going to Seattle during February break. Getting lost in Boston for 2 hours and almost getting us killed a couple of times, but didn't! Framingham is the worst town in the world.

Guys watch out for the ham. Dan, you have been one of my best friends and I thank you always being there for me. You are the man, now on your second watch. Racing from Denn to the house to see who can win. You four guys Matt Tremblay, Aakar Vachhani, Cu Kilburn, and Dan Nelson are the best and I hope that we will stay friends after high school. Love you mom and dad. Peace out!

Eric Chilicki

Wow, where to begin, From staying up really late to talk to my girl, to skating around at three in the morning because I don't have one. These years have definitely been ones to reflect upon. The major growth my friends and I have over taken, and the experiences I have had will stay with me forever. I will never forget the good time I spent breaking curfew. Steph, Shannon, Zak, I'll never forget the wild time we had. Everyone in the "Trix crew", no worries you guys I'll never stop skating. First and foremost I would like to thank God. Without him I wouldn't be here. I would like to thank my parents, for keeping me on the right path and helping me get my work down, if not always on time. I love you all and don't forget to have as much fun as you can.

The past four years have gone by in an instant, but I will always cherish the great memories: night time sledding trips, Prom, Six Flags with the gang, good times, sleepovers, hikes to the movies, Chowdertown stories, and AP Study. Thanks to everyone who made my high school years spectacular: Julie, Kristin, Amy, Laura, Michelle, Katie, and Courtney. Kelli: Schmapdi in Mr. B's class. Emily: a trip to Italy and romance books. Erika: My fellow Cleaner Girl. Meredith: Frank Projects, and hours at Target and Old Navy. Sam: Singing Mr. Roboto in my car, Blue Flashing Light, and American Psycho. Thanks to my best bud Sarah who has been there for me through it all, and to my parents and family who gave me love and support I needed. I love you all. These past four years have been such an experience for me. There have been so many good times. I am so thankful for all my friends, way too many to name. Thank you all for always being there and for every amazing second. Prom and Prom weekend '01. The beach, and the ride down, always an experience. Thanks Drew. The Spicy Senior Trio, Heather and Jess. Washing the cars and being chased by the guys. Bowling with Shan and Heather and running across route 5. Third period study with Shan, Kasia, Dave, Mike, Matt, Zach, "dirty kids." Sixth period study with Heather, Jess and Chris. Heather's psycho. I don't care what you say Eric, the trees are scary. Thanks to Mike and Kris for making nights fun, allowing me the opportunities to follow my dreams, and sticking with me every step of the way.

"It is good to have an end to journey towards: but it is the journey that matters in the end." Decorating houses. Homecomings "Whip cream it up what!" DMB and all the concerts. Ice luge girls. FL and scooter accidents. Famous a.m. talks. Prom weekend. Billie's birthdays. Lax. New Years at Residence. Rockville "Bring it!" Tears at UConn. Quebec craziness. Cape Cod with Greg. First kiss at Paul's and more memories to come. My girls: Denise, Katie, Alicia, Steph, Lauren, Caitlin, and Leah the memories will last a lifetime "See you and me have a better time then most can dream of." Thanks for growing up with me. To the boys: It's been fun, thanks for the laughs. Denise: Whether it was laughter or tears you've been there through it all. Thank you for walking beside me these past four years. Mr. Starr: thank you for always believing in me. Mom and Dad thank you for your love, support and patience even when I didn't deserve it, I love you.

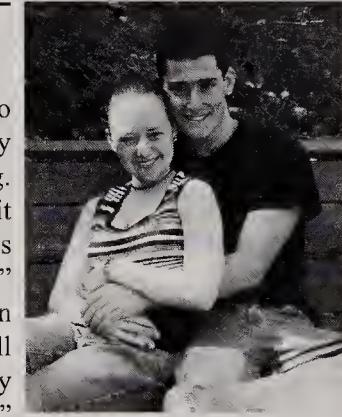

Brandon Cox

Kick, punch, chop, I got the funky flow! MIX the flour into the bowl! High school has definitely helped me grow as a person and live to go through with my dreams. I'll never forget all of the good times with Jay, Shaun, Matt, Steph and the rest of the crew! Hanging at Whetmore's and playing Dance Dance, o yeah! I had my fair share of bad times, especially junior year, but this year more than makes up for it. Hi Sonya, you're the coolest gal in SW, babe! I love all of the support I got from all of my work in the drama department. I know I'm still new at acting and singing, but I love it! To all of ya out there, I will win that Grammy and Oscar one day, Hollywood swinging, baby!

Friends are angels who lift us to our wings when we can't fly. To those who lifted me: Amanda-for late night talks/cries- my sanity/true best friend, Kate-my alter ego, Adam-for everything. Chaz-we've been together and apart/but always returned, may it be so. Steph- for being there, and to Garrett- sidewalk buddies forever. To those who carried me: Mr. Foley you're my "Dad" and my strength, thank you for each day. Mr. Olio-My American Dream, Cloutdog-for letting me just cry. Your wisdom will remain forever, never was a day wasted. To God for his love, my parents/grandparents for support, Erica-my sister, to the "dull" times- may they come, and to all who left marks on my heart: Seth, Lisa, Julie, Eric, Rachel, Marc, Justin, I love you and will not forget. Good luck, may we meet in the future with all dreams met.

Senior Embarassing Moments

Imagine sitting in the cafeteria with all of your timid freshman friends, minding your own business, when all of a sudden a popular senior gets up from her chair, and maneuvers herself from the middle of the cafeteria, where all the seniors sit, to you. Well, Michelle Mille knows how this feels. As she sat eating her lunch the senior came up to her, removed her glasses, and turned her head toward the senior guys' table. She screamed across the cafeteria, "over here." The senior then placed Michelle's glasses back on and went back to her table. Nothing else was said. It still remains a mystery.

The past four years have been filled with embarrassing moments that some will never forget. Times that you have looked back on and laughed or even shed a few tears.

Senior Stacey Bergfeld recalls, "We were on a ski trip my sophomore year and I slipped on an icy patch falling right on my back, and slid right into the middle of a circle of popular senior guys. I was embarrassed and speechless as I looked up at them laughing at me." These events happen on the spur of the moment. There is no way around them. Sometimes you just have to sit back and laugh at what happened.

Chris Albert remembers back four years to the first day of school freshman year. It was one day he would not go back to. "I walked into the cafeteria and looked for an open chair. I found one, took a seat and sat on a cup of Jell-O, placed so strategically on the chair. For the rest of the day I had a grape Jell-O stain on my pants."

Shannon Gusy brought us back to her sophomore year. "I was walking down the English hall and all of a sudden my sweater fell. I turned around to pick it up and my backpack thrusted over my shoulders and pinned me to the ground in a fetal position. People continued to walk right over me like nothing was wrong. I was on the floor for about a minute forcing myself to get up, but I couldn't. I finally rolled over in the middle of the hall, got up, and continued on my way," quoted Shannon.

If it weren't for the laughs and for all the tears we have had, high school would not be the same. However, these are only a few of the embarrassing moments people wanted to relive.

The ride was short down a long road. Soccer four years, Basketball two years, Golf three years, Captain Joyrides with Robby and D. Jay freshman year. Canada trip sophomore year, the bus ride needing stitches, my stolen board. My ride as the pig on the mo' pat tackling Julius Lambert aka Dave. The cadcrew (Dave, Nick, Zach) cutting down thirty foot trees with pocket knives. Zach's $150 atv. It's a two stroke. Race around the mall and back in four minutes with Dave. One day the cadcrew will sleep at Wal Mart in the burban and freeze. Someday we will actually go on a road trip. There will be a day where the cadcrews ideas will actually happen. To all my family I owe you everything. Alex I'll miss seeing you at my games, Karly keep doin everything you do, Mom and Dad thanks for all the parenting.

I would like to thank all the people who made my years at SWHS so memorable. Had great times with Melissa, Kasia, Nicole, and all my other friends. Prom 4/27/01 with Ant, Melissa, Steph, Kasia. All of the time I spent with Ant. I love you. Thanks to Mom and Aunt Lynn for all of the love and support you have given me.

Jesse L. Davis

It has been a great four years. Memorable times with everyone. Drumming it up with Winnie and the gang. Late night band practices and early morning Spectrum rehearsals. Trips to Canada, Philly, and Maryland. Some sort of drama production every day after school. Marching Band, and Volleyball, fun times. I will never forget the Jr. Prom, poor Chris. Mmm Drums... Good times at Cara's and all the other get togethers we had. Great friendships with Jason, Greg, and so many other people in the Music Department. Lawren, you have taught me so much about life, and have always been there for me. You will always hold a special place in my heart. Mom and Dad, thanks for everything you have done for me. I appreciate it more than you know. These are the memories I will hold onto forever.

Sarah Elizabeth Degen

To all of my many friends, you have helped to make four years slip by so quickly. Despite some hard times, I look back on our four years together with fondness. Without all of you I never would have been given a nickname, gone to Drum Major Academy, or found out that I'm never too old for Halloween (and pretty good at last minute costumes). I will always remember our gorgeous prom weekend, locking Em out of our room in Paris, singing off key with the radio together, and almost getting run over by football players. I had fun spending long hours rehearsing "we love you Conrad", being a white blood cell at the heart model in Philly, earning welts from archery, and yelling for Jam at all of the games. I hope the success lies in all of our futures and that our paths may cross many times. Good luck in all your endeavors and go bandos!

Leigh Ann Deffley

In the past four years I have learned a lot and who are my true friends are. Michelle you're my girl you have been there no matter what. That rough New Year's Eve, Niantic (Mike and Jerry), NYC, Elmore's "Michelle are you with me", sessions in your bathroom. Jen you are a child at heart and that is what I love about you. Spring break in Florida with Mas and Shep (craziest week ever). We had great memories and I know there will be more. Kim (Queen Bee) you always make me laugh (the time at Bennett's house with the booms you had me in tears and our adventure). Sami summer of '01, Henry, Hartford, Riverfest. Amber I had so much fun with you South Carolina '00 (smurfs), getting lost in the woods with Matt, Mas, Nick. Activity per at Bennett's. Chillin' 5th per. I remember getting caught in Hartford, April 21, 00, and my 16th birthday. Mom and Dad thank you.

Erin DeMallie

These last few years have been memorable. So many great times with Amanda, Andrea, Jaekie, Mere, Kristen, Nikki, Lauren, Kat, Shannon, Goose, Allison, Erica, and Diana. New years '01 was so much fun. Amanda, we had some fun times, "you look hot tonight." Andrea, you are the funniest person I know. Your birthday party, and the other crazy times, Dave Matthews with everyone, it couldn't have been any more fun. Remember Sam's Garage. Many times spent at Nevers Road Park. Field Hockey, it went by too fast, I will miss everyone. Every summer by the pool with the boys. Jess you hold a special place in my heart. My brother, Pete, you're the best, thanks for everything. Mom and Dad, you have taught me so much, you made me the person I am today. I could never thank you enough. SWHS left to the field hockey girls, good luck!

I can't believe it's over. Where do I begin? Crazy times with my girls, love you always. Snowball with Ali and all quality times with my cuz, talks with Aunt and Uncle B. Prom and Prom Weekend '01, endless talks, and NYC with Ana, pickle anyone? Mel want to see a movie tonight? Lauren, No Lauren, Dirty! To my Erica's, you're gonna make it, curious George's bananas, Patel why you tired? Ames does it hurt? Maria you are so sweet. Thuy I look up to you muah. Mom, though we rarely see eye to eye you are an inspiration, having gone through many hardships and still standing strong on your own, it's the Sicilian in us. Dad, my shining star, my angel, I look up toward the heavens and smile, I see your face and know you're at peace, I Love you, Dad's Girl. Every amazing second with my Italian Stallion, cherish our love, my Bear, What are you doing? Lil, it's left to you, so have fun. Any trouble I'll be right here!

The past four years have been an unforgettable experience. Some friends were lost, new ones made, old ones kept, a part of all will always be with me. I especially have to thank: Emily walking beside me for 13 years. We've been through so much. Always being a real friend, being there at the extremes. Lauren talks, advice, and understanding. Stacey our joke car, spins. Kerry always having a good time, being the same. Clin new experiences. And good times with Linz, Melissa, Karen, Kara, and Michelle. Senior guys, you know who are, thanks for all the good times, DMB, Canada, beach, Prom weekend, Maine, Homecoming, Sleepovers, and Friendly's nights. Lauren C- I'll always remember growing up together. You've all touched my heart in some way, making me I am today. Thanks to my parents for support. Blaize and Derek good luck. Lori, Ashley, Katlyn- have fun while it lasts.

These four years have flown by so fast, but I will never forget my time here. My friends and the things I've done here have made my life truly special. To Molly, you are such a great friend and you have always been there for me and I love you for it. One word...apple. And yes, I did see you Mo Mo. Jamie, another great friend I'll never forget. Don't forget you'll always have a bigger...nose, what did you think I was going to say. New Years Eve with Mo Mo and Jamie. Always remember that it's impossible for three people to all balance on a blow up plastic chair in a pool. Too bad in Jamie's basement. Justin, never follow me at night. Brendan, you are the best. Tom, you were there when others were not and for that I owe you a lot. To all my friends I should have mentioned, I love you all. As I move to my future, I will never forget the memories.

It's all over now. Thank God! To all the Pips who didn't get there, hold on. I did it, so you can. Word of advice to all you underclassmen, it goes fast, so enjoy it while you can. As everyone knows, I'm loud and I like to laugh. To all that know me, it was fun. For those who didn't you'll miss a lot. Jenn, Stephanie, Ryan and Mike it was fun at lunch and activity. Thanks for the laughs. To Ryan S. in English and Math (Twinkie and Beefy) it was a blast. Us showing up late to class everyday. To the school, I'm thankful that I won't have to put up with some of the dumb rules. I'd also like to thank my Mom, Dad and Stepmother for putting up with the craziest things that went on in my life.

It seems like only yesterday that Amy, Laura Bridge, Julie Dunbar, "Kritin" and I needed a "Lunch Table Constitution". I'll never forget Pat-on-the-Head girl, French fry girl, or pointless stories of the day, Friday bio-routine including plant-watering, unfinished Pepsi, and hangman. Barbie Dream Date and Catch Phrase with Laura G, Julie F, Amy, Susan, and all the good times. Krysta, I'm glad we could be friends again, and I am still here for ya. To all my band buds- we made it! No more freezing fingers or glow sticks needed. Montreal was great: six of us hiding in the bathroom, the problem was the French "cuisine." Bouchie as a rapper, scrambles for the Frisbee and penguin- "It was the cake", here's to Annapolis '02. Thank you to everyone who has helped me during these four years. Good luck, class of 2002!

Where have all the days gone? They truly have been amazing. Sara, Shan and Jackie, my sisters for life. Living on the edge, eh Lewis? Trees falling on Shannon, running into snow banks, confusion. Hooded mafia prom weekend. Ping pong and movie nights. Late night excursions to Nate's! Summers at the beach with Lewis and our stalkers. The song list. Italy and Greece, England, Canada. Hot tub nights and lost bathing suits. Clean up with Suzie. Good times with my field hockey girls. BajMahal nights! Nsync second row. Crashin old people get togethers in my van! Laughing uncontrollably. Hello Min! Cricket... Sara, best friends since age two, you will forever have a special place in my heart. Nate, my life wouldn't be the same without you. I will always love you no matter where our lives take us. Mom, Dad, and Em, thank you for your inspiration, you have given me my wings with which I will now fly. To everyone, remember to see how beautiful life is while you're living it, take risks, and live with no regrets.

To everyone who has stuck by my side though thick and thin, I will always remember you. Erica, you're my inspiration in life, you always keep my feet on the ground. We have shared so many good times, they become hard to remember. School bus rides with Charlie, Big Mommas House, "Simma," driving, Duece, Prom '01, Saturday night runaway, mission impossible, the beach house with Granny C, jet skiing, boating, tanning. Jenn, Michelle, Kimmy, keep the beach house tradition alive. Alex, watch out, you never know when I'll get you. Krysta, you will forever be a part of my life, you have made me who I am. (Thursdays) I've made lots of decisions in my life, but the most important one was opening up. Mom, you have shaped who I am from day one, and I will always remember the times you have been there for me. Dad, I could never ask for a better father. Thanks for believing. Left to SWHS: Kurt

Money in Your Pocket

Ever dig into your pocket and pull out nothing but lint? It's happened to the best of us. Jobs are a big part of our after school activities, especially for the seniors. Seniors Ashley Soltoski and Laura Burrill comment on how life at Dzen Garden Market is. "At times it can get boring, but during those hot July Saturday nights you sure keep busy. Plus the benefits of non-stop free ice cream isn't too bad," said the girls. Senior Denise Georgeady works at P.L.A.C.E.S. Daycare, "I love my job. Everyday I get to act like a little kid with the children and I get paid for it." Senior, Diana Gamache, who works at Buckland Cleaners, told us "It's great, I get to meet new people, prepare for the real world and get paid all at the same time." When we need money for the weekend, or are saving up for a new car, or more importantly college, jobs really make a difference. From Old Navy to nursing homes, the students here at South Windsor High School know how to get the job done.

I don't know how to express my gratitude to all those who have touched my life. You have truly helped me grow as a person, and for that I am thankful. If I could reach up and hold a star every time you made me smile, the entire evening sky would be in the palm of my hand. These last four years have been wonderful. Pigeon running, hamster dances, zoot suits, a wonderful time at the prom (thanks, Curtis!), singing in field shows, climbing mountains, being a space monkey, and so many other great memories. Arguing with Laura and Lina, "hating" Chris (you know I never could, even if I tried to), little Sarah and the insanity we shared, and boy problems with Rachel. Abbie- thanks for always being there, and understanding me. I love you all, and treasure all the time I've spent with you.

Julie M. Fiasconaro

Jujube, Jooolie, Little Amy

Huang, a friend is one who knows us, but loves us anyway. Andrew and Emily, without you I would still just smile and nod, thanks for forcing me to talk. Amy, Kristin, Garrett, Ashley, Janet, all you Laura's, thanks for keeping me sane (or insane). I'll never forget all my techies, Scoochie, AP study hall, 1143 tootsie pop licks, basement shindigs with "the dip", endless games of pool, darts, extreme ping pong, welfare doughnuts, Spartacus, car fairies, score now guy, and meesc's pieces. Good times at summer concerts '00 and '01, sexy dancing before Prom '01, and the trip of a lifetime Italy/Greece '01. Change a lot but never change. It is all experience, good and bad, that makes us the people we are and will become. Thank you for a memorable 4 years. S'agapo poli!

It's hard to believe that it's already over. We got through it. So many memories were made and will forever be remembered. I will miss all the good times I had with my friends. Growing up with Katie, Courtney and Amanda. Becoming best friends with Meredith, a very special person in my life. I know we will always be there for each other. Cape Cod with you was a blast. Life guarding and swimming during the summer with Michelle. Remember those good times? Playing lacrosse was great. Being in the band and playing at the football games was exciting. Chris, I love you with all my heart. We have so many great memories and many more to come. Prom weekend was the best. Good luck to everyone! Claire, you will be graduating before you know it! Thanks to my parents for bei the best and always being there for me. I love you guys so much!

Change! Our lives are molded by the choices we make and our decisions to jump on opportunities. Experiences! I've had many. I've felt heartbreak and sadness and I've tasted sweet bliss and euphoria. Now it's time to move on from this place taking in the adventures and everything I've learned to begin the long road to success. Thanks to the people who've showed me what is truly important in this world. Thanks to the teachers who devote their souls to us, but some things you can't learn from a book, you have to discover them on your own. Thanks to the friends who've stuck by me and to my sister who gave me rides freshman year. Finally, a great thanks and a shot of love to Mom and Dad who've taught me responsibility and lessons which will stay with me the rest of my life. I wish everyone in Class '02 good luck and farewell.

Josh Gregoire

It's been a long four years here at SWHS. Many great and terrible things have happened in these four years. So many events have taken place that are unforgettable. There are too many to name, and I couldn't possibly list them all or even remember them all because I don't even remember what I had for breakfast this morning. I'll just do myself a favor and thank everyone that helped make these four great years and helped me succeed. I would like to thank my parents, brother and sister as well as all of my friends. Later!

Emily Grenier*Em, Emmy, The Forgetful One, The Prez*

So this is it, four years gone by. It's been good times. All of our good times, the dog encounters and the fun with balloons. France, what was up with that? Marching band, "excellence is the standard," synergize!! Philly, I will never see elephants the same way again. Prom, would somebody teach the guys how to dance? Bob, will we ever know your true identity? History club, do you prefer snails or oysters? Emmaus, snuffle fest '01. Thank you to all of my friends for helping me through the bad times and making the good times even better. When you get stressed out remember to immerse yourself in purple. And always remember to laugh when you deserve a flourish. Have fun with your lives and don't sweat the small stuff cause it's all small stuff. See ya later, go bub bye.

Michael GriffinGriff, E. Goodwin*

Soccer and Baseball. Best times with the squad. Trips to E-Dub, Chevmos van, and deep thoughts. The big house on Tripp Road. Cassie's crib, Jay's beach house. Tag team with Paul and late night runs. Shaved heads with Caleb, Bon-fires, and the stone. "Get Wet" and the golf carts. Dan, CARE? Front steps. The many trips to 711 and Denny's. Suraj's crib. Canada, Chevmo rollin' down the hill. Skip days at Paul's. Prom. The Spot and Gerber. The many nights playing Pong. Team trips, close calls driving with Chevmo. Good times at Schils. Trips to the store and the 12 mph. Road. Four Rights Forever! To the many other memories not said, I'll always remember them. To my family, I love you all. Mom and Dad, Thank You for making me who I am. I couldn't have done it without you. Much love to the entire SWHS: My Bro Matt, Remember the Griffin name.

Zachary Taylor GrilloGrillo Zak, "Z", Ox*

I can't believe it's done already. Thank you Mom and Dad I love you both, my bro Nick and sis Laura I love u and leave u SWHS to do with what you want. Heather it seems like me and you were in kindergarten only last week. It's like just yesterday me, Eric, and the leprechaun were in gym "friskies" style! Too many memories to mention. I will never forget Prom '01 and crashin the Suburban! Lucian's half and halves. Chillin at the lake all summer with my bro, Eric. "word to your grandma!" right Shannon? Good times with everyone. Salaam!! We're out! It was fun while it lasted and my friends made it memorable. Uzma, who seems to fill my memories of childhood. Erum, always pushes me to succeed. Jason, who could always make me laugh. Amanda, who can't stop laughing. Soniya, who has been my partner in randomness (You Are My Soniya). Zane, who steps on squares; and Maria, who can never pronounce what I say. I can't forget my two chicks; Thuy, who has pulled me from the gutter on countless occasions; and Uyen, who makes the most out of everything and brightens my days. A big shout out to my boys around CT (Sharqo, Bagel, and Ars), you are the biggest gandoo's and alive. Array? I basically spend my days online and Reebz, Lana, and Hassi have made it an experience. On a scale of one to seven, with three being the highest, I give you all a twelve. I love you all. Allah hafiz.

The past four years have been the most memorable years of my life. Going to East Windsor and October 30 with Jen and Christine...need I say more! Road trips and sleepovers at Jen's with Billy, Justin and Tiney mom. Jen, thanks for always being there and sharing countless memories at Bo's backhouse. Good times with Erin, Mel, Ray and Mike (Seven, eleven or doubles). Erin and Mel, thanks for always listening to my problems and all the laughs we shared together. Endless good times at Chris' with Amanda, chillin' at Drew's and hanging out at Sean's with Jen and Paul. Sean, thanks for always looking out for me and being there through thick and thin. Paul, you were my first love and I will always remember the moments we shared together. I love you all. Thank you Mom, Dad and Eric for pushing me to do my best. Good luck Casey, Ryan, Matt, Erica and Jess.

One paragraph is not enough to put all of the fond memories I have had these past four years. To all my friends, thanks for being there when I needed you most. Montreal '01, Annapolis '02, Silver medal, the musicals with Cloutman, Mr. H, Graner, Foley, and of course my producer buddies, Allison, Steph, and Sean, cast parties, prom weekend, memorable talks with Steph and Mike about everything and anything. Early morning practices, late night rehearsals, online chats with Courtney, Niagara Falls '00, everyone in senior high youth group. The lunch table junior year, study hall with Erin, Nicole, Carrie, Kelly, and Steph, my crew from Bouchard's class. Emily thanks for the last thirteen years, my cousin Bri, long talks with Erin and Kadee, Lissa and Jenn, I will never forget you two. To everyone else, good luck in the years to come.

Of the four years I spent living out my high school career, nothing was as memorable as the time I spent with my friends. Writing on each other's shoes and getting sneezed on during class was fun. Yet the Saturdays we spent trash-talking for rec-ball or bowling were the most memorable. Summer days were spent together at the beach or just relaxing at my pool, but either way we made it fun. Every night we would wonder "Hey guys, what are we doing tonight?" This would eventually turn into get-togethers at one of our houses to talk, watch TV, or just play ping pong for endless hours. These are the times I will always remember. It turns out that in the end, the good times in life aren't what you can sometimes remember, but what you can never forget. I hope we can see each other in the future to bring back the good times of the past.

The adventure of moving to Connecticut has brought with it a flood of new experiences that without a doubt will become some of my most treasured memories. Ashley, Tom, Christopher, thanks so much for giving me my first reasons to like SWHS. To the rest of the friends I've been blessed to make over the past three years: I love you all. I'd like to give a million thanks to the teachers who have prepared me for my upcoming trek. Each of you has given me more than I need to succeed. For the rest of you reading this, who I never took the time to know, I'd like to thank you as well. Thanks for being hysterically funny, incredibly smart, sometimes dumb, quiet, talented, good looking, and happy. You all made up the fun part of school. Take care and God bless.

Whew! Time flies when you're having fun. Great times with "the crew", do we like Chinese? Happy Birthday Mitch and Scott! Prom '00 Amy G, Prom '01, Patty, Baseball, Last year boys, let's make it count! French class- Alicia, Steph, great times! It's just a game, but whatcha gonna do? Matt, there's nowhere to begin, and there is nowhere to end, best friends for life, thanks for being you. To the Fam, thanks for the kick in the pants and the hints towards the right direction. Mom and Dad, You have guided me and have shown me what the morals of life are, now it's time to show what a fine son you have raised. I love you. ~ The Love of my Life~ the beach, 4th of July, March 17, 2001, I can't list all the moments that have left imprints on my heart. Thank you for teaching me how to smile, how to laugh, but most important how to love! I love you Emily. You have made my dreams come true. "Some people come into our lives and stay for a while, others come and go leaving footprints on our hearts and we are never the same" It's time for newer and bigger challenges. Best of luck to all in their future endeavors. For now...I'm out!

First and foremost, I would like to thank God for guiding me through these past four years. Memories frozen through time- Chillin with the "crew"- "Mitch, the chickens are loose upstairs." Prom '01- a night to remember. Baseball- State Champs '99 and '00. One more coming? Unforgettable times in Myrtle Beach 2K and New Orleans 2K1. The journey has just begun... Mom and Pops- Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for always sticking by me and reminding me. Without your persistence and love, I would not be who I am today. I love you both! The rest of my family- thanks for giving me the confidence that I need to succeed. Kyle- From day one you have been there. You have helped me through thick and thin. Thanks for not being just my friend, but my best friend. Suzie T- What can I say to someone that left imprints on my heart, except thank you. To all those who I have crossed paths with, thank you for helping me down my road.

Marisa Hindson

I would like to thank my family for all of their love and support. I would also like to thank all of my teachers, especially Mrs. Carlson for helping me the past four years. Sharon, remember the time we saw Moulin Rouge, how we had to wait so long for a ride home? I also remember Pep Rallies, and how loud and chaotic they were with the crazy string flying everywhere! I had a wonderful experience at South Windsor High.

Jessika Holmes

One day in September of 1998, I couldn't wait to graduate. Now it's finally over!! Samary, Justin, De'ya, Jennifer, Donald, Stephen, Ahsaan, Qiana, Reeva, Raquel, Amber and Sami, I Love You. Keep It Gangsta. To the others, "Ain't nuthin". Holla at me when your hair grow. And stop complaining so much. Feel me skin? I still love ya'll. Good luck. To all the staff who got on my nerves, my little sister will be here next year to get on yours. She'll be there to hold it down for all the next year juniors. To my Goddaughter Sinsere and my babies Dajah and Damari, Jessy loves you. Since someone said my quote was inappropriate, I'm gonna quote my girl MaryJ. "You ain't even got no business hatin' me, and I'm sorry that you feel this way but you can just keep it movin'. Holla!

"If I could be anything at all . . ." The smiles stopped only for brief interludes. Sacred snow days, runs in the rain, M&M's, and secret code names, truth or dare, trips through llama land, swims in swamps in thunderstorms. Koala hugs and dance parties with spies, WOMAN performances, dinners and Dawsons, studying on the roof, Homecomings, Italy and Greece, Myrtle Beach and Disney. Lauren, Alli, Liz, Amanda, Erum, Shannon: I'm grateful for knowing people like you. Spaces have widened and closed, but in the end, you're all still there. Benji Oliver: Your world has made mine a million times better. You've shown me you and I've loved every moment of it; the beach your way, nights in Northampton, crazy days and lazy days. Thank you. I love you. Thank you Mom and Dad for letting me be me. Good luck Tara and Andrew Ryan. Lots of love. ". . . I'd be an angel, spread my wings and fly away."

In the following years, I will be going in quest of satisfying my ambition, but I cannot forget the days that I have spent in high school. All the fun times I've had these past four years will soon be over, and a new life will emerge. All we will soon have left are our memories. Like our unforgettable trips to Boston with Trembs, Steve, Aakar, and Josh. Getting our car towed, driving through the city for 4 hours in search of the stadium. Steve killing us 5 times. The awesome video game parties at my house, and insane life after Homecoming. (Steve) Also, to all my bando peeps: Michelle, Whilly, Julia, JB...and others I can't think of right now. I love you all!!!! And lets not forget the color guard For everyone; remember: All your dreams come true, if you have the power to pursue them.

Courtney King

We know all things must pass. I'm just amazed that these years have passed so quickly and changed so much. Thanks to all my friends for tolerating me and all my moods. Though often crazy, my time here has been wonderful. France was amazing! Prom '00 and '01 with the gang, pimpin purple hair, Get Real, trying to see the Bunnymen and U2, fake phones, made up bands in Mrs. Wimer's class, and random adventures in Storrs. There are too many great friends and memories to mention them all. Thank you to all the teachers who have inspired me, but especially Mr. Ellis and Mr. Foley; you taught life, not just a class. Now the darkness only stays the nighttime, In the morning it will fade away, Daylight is good at arriving at the right time, It's not always going to be this grey, All things must pass. G. Harrison

Thanks to all my girls who have been there through it all. You've been my backbone when times were rough. Special shout outs to Manda, Lizzie, Alli, Claire, Shannon, Erum, Min, Dan and Pete ("you taught me"), and to my international crew. Always remember Vermont with Dunham, Aaliyah, Disney, Rhode Island, Myrtle beach '01. Dbmart. Can't forget those "What did we do?" nights or those crazy summer nights and late night creeps. Summer '01. Special thanks to Manda and Liz for being the stars in my sky. Thanks Mom and Dad for loving me like you have and thank you for instilling a great sense of faith in me, I love you. Kate, for the long talks and endless support, I couldn't have handpicked a better sister. It's been a long journey, but it was worth it. To my papi, all my heart and soul, thank you.

Janet Marie Kleiner

We did it! We made it through four tough, crazy, fun years. Congrats! Thank you: all my teachers for encouraging me and helping shape me into the person I have become; Mr. Bombara, the best guy on earth; Mr. H., for putting up with me; Mrs. Field, for encouraging my interest in marine science; the library ladies, you're awesome; "mom" for listening to my problems and giving me a better understanding; all my friends, too many thanks, too little space; to my parents, for pushing me; to my biological mother, for putting me on this earth. Jill, always remember: dancing, Barbies, mermaids, dream guys and the real guys of our lives (you know who!). Lastly, thank you Ken, for being the best friend ever, my shoulder to lean and cry on, love you always. Future good luck, class mates and to the people left behind, live it up!

These past four years at SWHS have been interesting to say the least. So many fun times with Katherine, Erin, Andrea, Jackie, O'Connor, Diana and all the rest of you girls. Ange's b-day 2000, Ange's cool parties 2001, Sam's garage, and let's not forget my house, oh god... Hey Erin you look hot tonight! Haha! Lunch talks with Diana, hey don't forget "circus peanuts" haha! To Katherine, it's been a pretty crazy 14 years of friendship. I know we will make it at least 14 more. Mom and Dad you guys have given me so much and I truly thank you for that. Alicea- you are my support system and I don't know what I'd do without a sister like you. What else is there to say? Oh yes, Katherine: "Do we Dare? Do we? So close and yet so far..."

I will never forget who has walked in and out of my life in these memorable four years. Prom with Ash, Weekend at Jay's, Up In Smoke, DMB, Tailgating, Pool Halls, the Pike, Canada, Gerber, Camping Maine, Thursdays, Bonfires, Road Trips, Chilling with the Crew, Van Trips, Firing it Up, Driving the South, Movie Nights, Pong, 7 Eleven, Working the Mill, Farmstead, SWFD, "George" and walking the Edge with Nate. Before the next journey begins I would like to thank God for being there when the dice of life rolled a conflict in my way. The last few words I dedicate to my family. I know life for us never was easy, but Mom I want to tell you that I love you and that you always ended up being right. Thank you for watching over my shoulder. Pete, you are my guiding star, thank you for being there. MK, Have fun! Being a Bobcat will never be forgotten. Patience: "If you have but one shot at an opportunity, make it count."

Finally out of SW! I'll miss you all. Jamar, Jon-My bros, I'll never forget all of the fun at Golfland! Seth, Remember Commando Thursday! Jared, Greg, Tall Matt, Matt, Alex, Brendan, Justin, Shot down! Let's go over Matt's! Lauren, Waiting for my 25th Birthday! Becca, I miss you guys! Lisa, Thanks for the good times at Quinnipiac! Molly, Why do the hydrogen have red spots? I could use another root beer! Cara, Where's my pie? Holmes, Erin, Kadie, Sledding is awesome! Liz, Valerie, Never forget Orange Tuesdays! Judy, How's your brother? Michelle, Fran, Thanks for the chocolate! Erica, Beach after Prom = Cold Water! Heather + Shaun, See you in Hawaii! Great times backstage at the cast parties! Thanks to my family for always being there, and to my cousins Jess, Joe and Gina for being my brothers and sisters. Thank God it's finally over!

Sharon Kwon

SharonKwon!, SK, old woman

First and foremost I have to thank my parents, my friends, and my teachers for what I have learned these past four years. Marissa for just listening and sympathizing. Clara for your support on missions 2001 and our team jokes. The Band and Senior Honors English (Linz, Jan, Becky) for all the jokes and humor. I don't think I've ever laughed so hard before 8:00 in the morning in my life. Thanks Kristin for proving that there is a Sharon, Kwonecticut. Points for Lindsey and Becky for surviving Brit. Lit. with me (you can redeem them for stuff from my locker). Meaghan, for keeping me focused in the middle of all the madness. Mock Trial since freshman year; Michelle and Meaghan, I'll never forget your "moments". An apology and a peace offering for all the guys who suffered the wrath of the femi. (I'm still right, though).

Jamie Ashley LaChapelle

Cheerleading 9,10, decorating houses, Homecoming, "cheerleading" parties! Chillin with Jen. New Years Eve '00 in Maturo's car-I'll never forget you! Christie's club obsession, processes! New Year's Eve '01-Jeremie, Shaun, and Christie. Amanda summer '00, Florida, Chillin at "HIS" house, 104 Fest-We didn't last very long-It was fun! Prom '01! Erica-Chinese food talks, pillow scenes, afternoon check-ins, endless secrets-We got through it! You'll always be my next door bud! Unforgettable 2 a.m. Hartford scene and the drive home and out with Lee, '99! Shaun-I love you and you are my best friend! Mom-It's been rough and I got you through everything, I'm sorry! Daddy-I'll always be your little princess! I love you best! Auntie-You will always be with me, I miss you and I love you! I leave behind my brother Dan.

What can I say, these past four years have gone by so fast. I can't believe it's over. Erin, we have shared so many memories together. Fat girl tips and so much more. You're my best friend and I love you. Jen, anytime I've cried from laughter has been with you. Puddles, I'll never forget our rides. I love you Jenny Meulkie. Christine, through thick and thin we managed to find our way back, I'm glad we did. Thanks for the laughs. Lyndsey, you were always there for me when I need someone to talk to. You never fail to make me laugh. Sami, second period, enough said. Steph and Billie, there is not a boring moment when I'm around you two. I love you guys. To my parents, thanks for putting up with me. I know it's been tough but thanks. I love you. To my sis, I can't put into words how much you mean to me. You're my lil sis and I love you. Left to SWHS: Jess and her friends, Erika and my cousins; blood and I'll miss you.

Fulfilled expectations, extreme complications, tender emotions - In essence we are all the same and I am no different from anyone else, but my memories are. Kim and Steph you are my friends for life. Billie Sue, Katie, Alicia, the twins and anyone who sings Like a Prayer, the laughs and good times are endless. Lauren, Caitlin, Sarah your new friendships have enriched the old ones and together you all made the past 4 years possible. Jim, thanks for showing me it's possible to go beyond the boundaries that have been set before me. You taught me how to love and for this reason you'll always remain a part of me. Lacrosse opened a whole world of discipline. Sitting on the Canyon and capturing memories in VA. Smiles in the hall, classroom discussions shaped my life. My family, my backbone: Dad, Dan, Mom-I love you and appreciate your contributions to my success. I love you, God.

It's hard to think that high school is finally over and it's time to say goodbye, but it is and I have to do it. I never thought four years could go by so fast and at the same time leave so many memories of events and people that I would never forget. From embarrassing myself by nearly falling down the stairs numerous times freshman year, to Gineo shooting Mr. O'Konis with nerf balls then dying laughing, or being called Yerone on a constant basis. It's been fun but all good things come to an end and it's time to say goodbye. I'll never forget the people and the memories that have made these four years so special...bye.

Good times through SWHS. Times chillin at Bo's back house playing pool. Going to Ozzfest 2 years in a row with my older sister Michelle, my friends, Kyle and Bo '00 and '01. Having fun going crazy down back with all my boys and the bonfires. Good times at Dave Matthews and Godsmack/Deftones concerts. To my old Plymouth Acclaim, I'll never miss you. I hope you're still broken down on 91N up in Mass. Also, times me, Ryan, Rob, Will, JT, and Shawn went up to the beach. To all those crazy people chillin at the Red Spot in East Hartford. To the Mason brothers, represent. Chris, good luck with little Nate-Dog (Filisha) Having some of the best times at my girl's house in Vernon with the whole NPC crew. Steph, I will always love you. Left to SWHS: Krawfsky, Will Wetherbee, Haze, and my little sister Carolyn. This is J-Red saying out.

Concerts

As the summer approaches, students at SWHS look forward to sleeping in, late nights, and concerts. Concerts must be the craziest summer experience anyone could have. Just picture thousands of people just chillin at the Meadows; for some it is a blur that they will always remember. "Four pounds of Burger King ground beef in your gut, the sun beating on you as your blistered and glass-cut feet walk through the dirty, dusty pavement toward the Meadows Music Theater. It is a summer ritual for many of us at SWHS," says senior Ryan Baker, reflecting back on his concert experience last summer. The summer concert scene is a memorable experience that can not be forgotten. People flock to the Meadows and other music theaters around Connecticut to watch their favorite bands perform live. "There is nothing like seeing Dave Matthews live. It gets better every time I see them. They never have a dull performance," says senior Karen Bente. Concerts are traditionally just about the music, but they become much more. "Meeting people is one of the highlights of going to a concert," says senior Katie Haffner. "I love going up to people and just saying random things or attacking them. It is very entertaining." Bonding with your friends is great and you can always have fun with them. No one can be in a bad mood at a concert. At concerts, you can talk about anything to anyone. "The best part about concerts is you are able to talk to people that you would never talk to," senior Kim Boris recalls. For whatever reason students at SWHS go to concerts, concerts are all about having fun. For our last summer in South Windsor, most seniors will choose to spend most of their time hanging out in the parking lot at the Meadows. From Dave Matthews to 104 Fest, concerts are all about fun, music, and friends.

Stephanie Mary Legere

Steph, Umi

So many people have changed my life in my time at SWHS. To all my friends, too numerous to list, thank you for the laughter and support; you've helped me to grow and realize who I am. Lina, thanks for the help, advice, and good times. Karen, we've got some unconventional memories. Chris, I know I can always talk to you. Lindsey, Sayu-chan, thanks for anime all-nighters, addictive books, not killing me (left turn!), and most of all for understanding. I'll never forget Regionals, Spectrum trips, France 2001 with Sage and Michelle, crowded lunches with the guys, Girl Scouts, er... Soccer Club, Prom with Matt. Mr. Foley, Mr. Graner, and Mr. Henriques-thank you for nurturing my love of music and the stage. Mom and Dad, I love you. Tom, my favorite brother, make me proud. To the Class of '02 I wish the best of luck - may you all walk your own path to fulfillment.

I never thought that in four years there would be so many people who would touch my heart. From the moment I entered SWHS I have been blessed to encounter so many amazing friends and teachers who have taught me the importance of believing in myself. Without their guidance and love I would never be where I am today. Rocky, Semmel Thank You for always making me aim for excellence. Kath, we have been friends forever; I will cherish all our memories, our house, our runs, eating my food. Liz, from our talks to our summers in RI, I will never forget all you have taught me about life. Shannon, it is with your heart that you showed me the meaning of a true friend. I will always remember our times together, Prom '01 hooded mafia, Italy, nights at Dunham's, "Get out of my house", the song list. Mom and Dad you gave me my wings and taught me to fly, I love you. Alex and Margie, believe in yourself and you will find happiness.

Mark Lindahl

"Hey yo!"

I've had an overall good couple of years here at SWHS. Fourth period Wednesdays with Scott taught us all about the back roads of north central CT. Hiding books and making people beep was a good laugh. Donuts at Duprey led to trouble with transmission. "Uuhhhh, my car's getting towed." Haha, it worked. Of course I can't forget the cool times out of school with Loquacious People. Thanks Steve for your help in Algebra 2 last year. I hate this new format. And so now the last of the Lindahls has satisfactorily completed the rigorous demands of SWHS. Step aside brothers, I'm gonna be the good kid.

What up to all my boys, RollzBoyce, Skinny B, Lil Mase and the rest of the crew. We've had mad good times and bad ones too. New Years Eve 2001 at the Carrier Inn, New Years 2000 at my house. Coining the doors so we can come back in. Peace out to the bridge. R.I.P. to my one and only Ugly Duck and the infamous Gurgles. Eating green gelatins and seeing the fireworks. For all the late nights on my deck. Can't forget about Dash, Justin, Houle and everyone else.

BISMILLAH. Thank you Allah Mia for your guidance, I will always have faith in you. Ammy and Daddy, I greatly appreciate you from the bottom of my heart for always giving me your unconditional love and support. Monia, thank you for being such a great sister and Sania, thanks for all the good times: "but do you bant?" Lots of love to Natty (I miss you), Uyen (My baby), Sophie (Clarion 1999!), Michelle (For the laughs), Erum (You've always been a such sweetheart), and most of all my Montreal and Desi crew: I love you all. Big shout out to all my friends from A to Z and to all my teachers, I couldn't have done this without you. Let faith be our destiny, until then...Au Revoir!

Erum Majid

There's no good in goodbye, but it's time to reminisce what Allah has blessed me with. So many friends, truth, laughter, and tears. My memories are meant to be spoken, no need to be written. Sara, Ally, Liz, Amanda, Claire, Lauren, our circle continues, back and forth, love and hate, who knows how it will end. You guys mean so much to me. Best wishes to PRS grads, and desi's whom I'll never forget. Tom K, Motto, I got mad luv and respect for both of you. Usman, 1st desi to be happy for others rather than hate. Vicky, who filled me with mad knowledge. Uyen, tears of happiness fill my eyes, nothing left to do but for us to rise. Amber, you made me who I am. Mom and Dad, thanks for letting me wake up everyday appreciating life. To all the new girls, I'm passin down hope to be me, BUT there will only be me. You believe you'll succeed? Naw, I'm one of a kind, so let it be.

Wherever you are, it's your friends that make the world. Stacey, Lisa, Emily, Kassie; you girls have been incredible. The memories, talks, and experiences will stay with me forever. Thanks for making my world. Linz and Nora, thanks for enjoying who I am and always listening. Frank, thanks for always being a friend! Caitlin, Kerry, Melis, Karen, Kara, and Michelle the memories have been awesome. Kassie's casa, prom weekend, Homecoming, New Year's, close calls in the Bug, many more. Field Hockey-junior's on JV; it was fun. Justin, Bryan, Paul, Mike and the rest of the guys, thanks for making my life adventurous. Ms. B you've truly been a great mentor. Mom- thanks for raising me, you did good. Art- thanks for helping and putting up with me. Dad and Zina- thanks for being there. Debbie- you're a great sister, I hope you know that I love you. It's all gone way too fast.

Four years, too much to do, too little time to do it in. The soccer team, thank you for a great time. Freshman yr. with Dan and Greg. Long nights in Suraj's basement. Riding in Jackman with Dave and Pinnow. Canada, DMB, Kassie's house with Mackie, Chris and all the girls. The Stone, Gerber, the bonfires and those days in the woods. The beach houses Kassie/Dan. Prom and prom weekend with the whole crew. Pushing Porsche, Mike, Amanda, Liz, Anderson, Danny and Alli. Allison you are my first love; you have meant the world to me and always know that you will have that special place in my heart. You have had the greatest impact on me and I love you for that, thanks for all the great times we had together. Mom and Dad thank you so much, I couldn't have done it without you, I love you guys. Thank you for the memories that will never be forgotten.

As I reflect back on my four years of high school I have a lot to be thankful for. Irreplaceable memories with Amanda, Liz and Erum. Good times with great new friends I met senior year. Prom '00 and '01 with Mike, thanks for three years of incredible memories. Summers at Dizzy's beach, no water for me. Myrtle Beach with 7 crazy girls, Maine '00, England with Liz, and Florida with Kristen (I love you like my 3rd sister). Numerous blonde moments I shared with Shannon. Movie nights with Bak. To Liz Dunham, from diapers to cap and gown you have shown me what a true friend is, thank you. Pepin's, Dunham's, and Mike's family, thanks for all the support. Mom and Dad I could not have asked for better parents. Kate and Abby you two are both special in your own way, good luck in the future!

where between the homework, the classes, and the tests, I found the true meaning of high school. I realized it's not about our hair looks, or what clothes you wear or how pretty you are. It's not about the color of your skin, or where you live, or where you play, or which guy or girl likes you. It's not about who you've dated, or who accepts you, or how many people call. It's not about failing, or falling in love, or your grades or much money you have. In fact it's not about how many friends you have, or who is your best friend, or who you hate. High school isn't about that. It's about finding who you really are. It's about growing and changing. It's about learning from your mistakes and experiences. It's about being you. Thanks, everyone, for showing me how to be me. Left to SWHS: Cullen '03 and Kyle '05.

has made so many great friends and had so many awesome experiences. Karaoke in France, Prom '01, Montreal (forty-five minutes), Florida with Cara, Chemistry with Whitey, dances, the rollerase virus, Spectrum (jazz square!), freshman powwow, carnivals with Jamie. Hanging out with Amanda during rehearsals and goofing off in Spectrum. Finally on Tuesdays! Hanging on backpacks. Jay stealing my root beer. Jared, bell bows. Laughing with Steph about the pineapple incident, I thought no one saw that. Hanging out at Cara's was always a blast. Brendan, how many papers could you lose? Thank you to all my friends, you know who you are. To Justin, you have been my best friend, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. I love you. Thanks Bill for being my example. Thanks to Mom and Dad for always being there for me.

Oh Billie Oh

Who do I begin, or shall I say end? All of my beach girl never have I met so many amazing individuals in my life before that I care for. To the girls that have been through the worst with me (Steph and Oh) I cherish and love you. Steph, I know that one freshmen night of ours will always remind us not to beat up our own friends. My Oh, more getting caught out. To my brother, who has always been in the deepest of my heart, I love you. As for new, Nick, Nate, and Stearns, the few individuals who can put up with him, I love you guys. My apa, my mom, my little bro's, the family that became my life, without you I wouldn't know how to be alive and to have no regrets. Danielle, my other half, I love you with all my heart. Also to Sarah P., the sister I never had, I love you too. Finally, 311 and all the other homies, the few extra laughs I can't go on without.

We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere. A lot of memories will fade, but some things I won't forget: Canada trips, sleepovers, beach days, "6 of us," amazing years of lax. The lessons I've learned in high school are invaluable. Things that seemed so significant really don't matter. Being your own person and doing what is right is underrated. Lauren, my BF-honest, true, yet misunderstood. Mike, you know I love you. And most of all I thank my family. The four people that will always be there for me, family is forever. Tommy, you're a funny kid-be good, have fun. Mark-you taught me a great deal, yelled at me when I needed it, and became my friend. Mom-I don't know anyone with more heart or compassion for her family. Pops-your friendship means the world to me, our talks, coffees, laughs. I couldn't ask for more, I love you all. High school was fun, but I'm ready to move on.

Don't let your life pass you by. Amanda, thanks for being there whenever I needed you. Keep singing baby. Ashley, you are wonderful. Don't ever stop smiling. Garth Power. Chris, we have come a long way together. Don't ever forget the times we had in English '01. Jess, what can I say, you are my princess. I love you girl. Michelle, I will never forget your birthday Pizza on Wed. UConn. To Emily, you are my Sister – and I hope the best in basketball. Don't let anyone get you down. Basketball with Anne, Kim, Deya, Jackie, Kelly, Jen, Becky. Brian, you are wonderful to me. Thanks for Prom, I love you. Mom, Dad, Megan, Michael- I love you all. Good luck class of '02.

Lots to talk about and a lot to remember. The night of Ping-Pong with Craig and Fisher. "The Volley" with Fisher. Get-togethers at the Bajmalah. "The Meetings." Two years of science [with a view] with Craig. The hole in Liz's wall and the window in Nate's basement. Harak's English class...yikes! But then again, a masterpiece of a project. Senioritis in Mrs. Wimer's class...junior year. Heated extreme bowling competitions and of course - tree hugging. Simpsons quotes every morning in Novick's class (also a view). Insane times in Italy and Greece 2001; the best hotel room in the world! Summer '01, late nights at Jon's house doing nothing and enjoying every moment of it. Tons of other stuff I can't remember but most importantly, four years of growth - as a student, a friend, and as a person. Love you all, and thanks...Elgart.

Prom Weekend

The night of April 27, 2001 was more than just another average night. As all of the girls rush to get their makeup and hair perfect, this night would be a dream come true. Although to many, the prom was just the start of the weekend. After the night of glitz and glamour the tradition of "prom weekend" is to go the beach or anywhere near the sand. For example, Liz Dunham and her friends went to her beach house in Rhode Island. Laura Burrill and her friends went to Brian Gineo's beach house in Old Lyme. Why do we feel that the beach is where we belong after prom? Maybe because you have built up so much stress over this one night, buying your dress/ tux, doing your hair, (not to mention all of the appointments) nails, makeup, and basically anything else you can possibly imagine. You deserve a weekend break! After all of that you deserve more than a weekend break. The weekend of April 27, 2001 was a bit chilly but that didn't stop many from frolicking. "The highlight of the weekend was when Tom Kuczynski jumped into the ice cold April water and swam around a buoy!" Justin Kapisak laughs. Class of 2002, prom was a memory that we will all remember through life, no matter what type of experience. Good luck in your future.

I have created myself into the person who I have become and don't regret a moment of it. Jay, Kimmy B, Aimee, Jenn, Jaimie, Chelle, Lexi and anyone else I've met along the way...you've been an inspiration in my life. Jaywon, my Angel; never forget that, you were the best birthday present a girl could ask for. Good Times with the Lunch Crew and their moms: Prom '01, Chalker Beach, Sat-nite Runaway, Heart to Hearts, Superheros, MAC, Suavemente, Swiss Rolls, Schteve, Mall Dayz, Jungle Feva, Breaker-Breaker, Xando nites with the gals, PREMIERE, Girl Scouts, Clean not Dirty, M&M's, Chinese, Afternoon Checkins with the pillow scenes, Danceing, Trips to the HeartBeat, Insane Coneerts, Bus Rides with Charlie, DUECE, "Simma," and the funky music that we bump to. Just unforgettable moments. Dziamas, thank you for having open arms and treating me like a daughter. Mommy and Daddy, thank you for pushing me to exceed. Without your persistence I would have never made it this far. Minha Vozinha Pequenina, obrigado. Eu no posso dizer mais. Tomacita, it's up to you now. Bejinhos! I'm finally out of here! Ginger, you pushed me all the way, thank you. So many memories I'll treasure forever. I miss the friends I lost but cherish the ones I have. Tiney, we've been thru it all (East Windsor). Mary everyday. I love you forever Tiney. Linz, thanks for always telling me things are ok. "Hearts", all the nights at Bo's backhouse. Cabbage night '01! Fun huh? Mel, you never fail to make me laugh. Meulk, you're in a bubble! Pillow talk with Erin. We was like peas and carrots. Love ya ma pooka. Sami sun sun caught out! Zorro. Sean be careful I still care. Nights at Weineys. Brian stay cool luv ya. Your lip ok Amanda? Thanks for bringing Chris into my life. Words can't say how he makes me feel. Andy, you helped me more than you know. Mom, Dad I love you. Thanks for all the support. Derck, good luck with hockey. Giselle, couldn't have done it without you.

Lost friends to best friends, first loves to true loves, you think you've seen it all, but life's just beginning. In this short time, I've made a lifetime of memories. Kara, friends from the start. Laura, you are one of a kind. Karen, we could always relate to each other. Melis, Linz, and Kerry, always a great time. Memories will go on; from "Like a prayer" to pregaming, basements, the stone, uno, victims, beep it up, prom, bottle nights, EW and Oz. Concerts, tailgating, DMB and the iceluge girls. Good times with Chris. Front row with Mackie. In high school, your friends are the closest to you, thanks for being there. Art, you've showed me how it feels to be loved, you are cherished. Monica, you've inspired me. Ma and Dad, you've put up with my attitude. I'm grateful for everything. I love you. Thanks. Joe- Goodluck. Although high school is over, our memories and friendships are not.

Mike Modisette

A person's memories are one of the greatest things anyone can have. Especially after you grow up. They are something nobody should ever forget. 20 years from now I'd feel sorry for those people who do. Over the last four years I have had my ups and downs with all my friends and my family. But we were there for each other and that is why I will never forget you guys. I love you all. The good times and all the trouble my friends and I got into. We learned from every experience we had. All of you guys have meant a lot to me in the past. You still do now and always will. Larosse, eight years of the best sport ever. I'll never forget what it feels like to step on the field. Hit or get hit, and scoring goals. I love it all. As for coach, thank you for everything you've done, and my family, I love you. Thank you for everything. I'll never forget this.

Eighteen years of memories; here goes. In life, few can honestly say they have experienced true friendship. I have been blessed with this virtue all my life. To my friends, whom I love and adore, you have helped to build the foundation of my character. Without you I would've never made it this far. Thank you. And Amanda, we were always there, it was everyone else who was far away. To my parents, there are few words worthy of the sacrifices you have made for me. You have given me the opportunity to dream and taught me what loving someone truly means. Know that my heart is full of appreciation. I love you. And Stephen, I will forever be your big sister no matter how tall you are. In the end, life is about the bonds we form with people. As I leave this town I take with me a lifetime of lessons, a heart full of memories, and a bag of laughter. So much love. Thank you all.

I never could have imagined these past four years could have gone by so fast. So "Here's to the nights..." homecomings, snowballs, spring flings, pep rallies, 6flags, club 2001, road trips, "Where are we?" Snowboarding with Steph...wait rolling down the hill with Steph...nope she is walking down the mountain!" Prom '01 "Guys where are we going, follow those limos!" Umm, "These are the moments?" Café study therapy sessions with bagels and Melissa's voices. Through all these times I couldn't have asked for better friends, you mean the world to me, you'll always be in my heart. Mi amor- I'll love you forever! Mom and Dad through the years you never doubted me, you stood by me and never stopped believing in me, I couldn't have done it without you, I love you! Kristen, Robert and Jack, it's left to you so live it up! I love you all, I'm out!

Spectrum, Drama Club (Jane. All Jane.), Color Guard. Mr. Foley, you believed in me when I didn't believe in myself. I will never forget you. Garrett, my shoulder to cry on; lots of best wishes. Nan, my inspiration; thanks for always putting up with me. Rachel, my dearest friend, so many memories. You and me, always. Endless love to Mommy, Daddy, Susie and The Boys. Left to SWHS: A color guard, a Stats class, Kin, Andrew, so many more. Soon we'll begin our journeys alone but I will carry you all in my heart. May God grant us the serenity to accept what we cannot change, the courage to change what we can, and wisdom to know the difference. May we count our blessings, learn from our mistakes, and shower those we love with love. Life is beautiful! Don't let it pass you by.

It has been a fun trip. Many fun times and good memories. Colin ' with the "boyz"- Just, Houle, Jonny V, Big Motto, and Spiegel. The Brook, the Branch, Gerber. Long adventures in the world. J-bone on his last life. Valley calls. Cassie's house and fun nights. Country Stone crew. Bos' crew. Keep going strong kid. Long nights waiting for Scotty B. Heavin' the bumps. Florida with Houle and Just. The store on Long Hill with friends. Canada, Up in Smoke '00, 104 feet, and scary rides home. Ring to Maderas'. Left to SWHS: All my boys lax/football. Still out of trouble, Shonty, A.J., Krafski, and Whinny. To my family: I made it and will prove the world wrong. Thanks for everything. Bobcat Football Wins! #44

I had lots of fun in the last four years. Chillin with my boys, Danny, Nate, Dre, Duy, Spak, B., Los, Tj, Thuan, Deveau, Boyington, Mitch, Clouser, Champagne, Jermaine Griff, Motto, Dan, Vetere, Fisher, Justin, Marrero, Pinnow, and Spiegel. Anybody I forgot, my bad. To all the good times. Me and Vetere almost killing ourselves in the trans am during a snow storm. "Up in Smoke" was off the chain. Chillin at the palace. Rec-ball champs 00-01, trinity for life. Almost getting caught out with Deveau and the boys behind the bus station. DMX's best album was definitely the first (Spiegel). The trip up to the D-12 concert was phat. I almost forgot that trip up in Nate's room with DJ and Los; I'll never forget that one. Oh yeah I didn't forget you. Joe, I'm out.

Christopher Motto

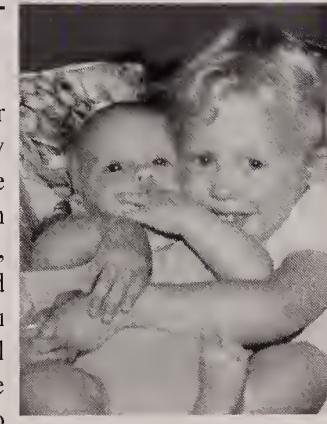

Interaction of opposites, high school is no exception: excitement, boredom, conformity, defiance, ignorance, enlightenment, acceptance, rejection, loneliness, comfort, relaxation, anxiety, ingenuity, dumbfounded, deception, truth. Obstacles thrown in my way, I could never have made it without people. "Suuu, that the call for the crew." "It can't be one, the powerful WuTang Clan, true education." Crazy Justin, Buligan, Big Diesel, Spiegel, and John John. Life is worthless without the people that make me want to get up in the morning, such, Clouser, Barrett, everyone none stronger than the other. Kie, Julie, miss you along with the others. Rachel I love you. Erum my babe. Megan and Chelsea. Stacy I have confidence in you. Sorry if I forgot you. "Look to the star, that's where you will find me."

I am grateful to my friends and family for making these last four years so unforgettable. Soccer. Chowdertown with Kelli, Kelly, Carlee. Prom. DMB. Whipped Cream. Sledding. Five minutes. Talks with Kelli. Italy with Sam, Ashley and Kristen. Good times. Coolata runs with Kris and Cars. Thanks to Sam, Mere, Cars, Kris, Paul, Baker, Brad, Erik, Kevin, and Ben. You guys always make me laugh. Erika-I'm glad you wake up in study hall, it wouldn't be the same without you. Kelli-thanks for always being there, you guys are my surrogate sisters. Kelli-thank you for being my best friend and listening to me no matter how crazy I sound. Thanks Mom and Dad, I couldn't have done it without you. I love you both. Ryan, enjoy every moment, it goes by too fast. Good luck next year: Kim and Anna-'03, Tom and Andrew-'06 and all my soccer ladies.

"All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream." Four years have slipped by so fast, yet I'm happy to say that I was able to appreciate so much of my time here. Firstly, I must express my love and gratitude for all those who have positively impacted my life thus far. I do not feel the need to list names because you should all know who you are. As for those who have negatively affected my life, thank you also. Overcoming all of your challenges has been a true learning experience. Basically, I love most of you and even if I hate you, thanks anyway. Good luck to those with whom I'm parting ways, and good times to the friends I leave behind. I'm going to see you all again, and we'll all go back to France some day too. Best wishes for you all to find peace and love within yourselves and others. "Is all that we see or seem but a dream within a dream?"

"Wave to all my friends, they don't seem to notice me...I remember when I swore I knew everything, let's say knowledge is a tree, it's growing up, just like me" These four years have had their ups and downs, but I wouldn't trade the memories for anything. Thank you to all my friends...we had some fun times. Ground Hogs, joy riding with Scott, insane week at Taco's house, chill trips plus with Thy, rec ball champs, prom '01, basement games with Danger and Jomo, road trip to Delaware, mindsweper and puzzles at the tree, 12 egg omelets, unbreakable "container", you are here on your own free will Katie? nutty tailgating, Canada, Rae...you've truly been someone to lean on, thanks for everything. Thanks to my parents and Stukey for both supporting and putting up with me. "The only way to predict the future is to define it" wait and see...

Time goes by so fast that you just want to hold on longer. Memories were chilling with my crew, Amanda and Anna, Latin class chats, Girls' Night at the Hovland's (Yippee Amber and Ashley), Prom '01, the tennis team, partners with Allison (The ball's Out?), handball with Nicole (be aggressive), anonymous notes with Ashley, Jess, and Cadiz, and wake up talks with Stubs and Sony, thanks for listening. Shout outs to Katie, Carlee, Kelli, Meredith, Liz, Tashana, my Chick (Uyen) whose keeping me real, Anh, my Latin class buddies, the Desi girls, and to the tennis ladies. Chi Tuyen, thanks for helping me bloom into a beautiful flower. Thank you anh Tuan, chi Phi, and friends for always caring and being there for me. Cam On Ba va Ma for everything you've done, I know you want what is best for me. I Love You All!

How do I summarize my amazing high school years in 700 characters or less? I can't, so I'm not even going to try. I can't name every single person who meant something to me along the way, but I'm sure you know who you are. My Desi crew; Soniya, Uzma, Maria, and Usman. Through our laughter and our tears we still made it. My babe, Thuy, you know I'll always have your back no matter what. Vicki, all I have to say is "it's not that serious", you always manage to make me laugh no matter how tough my day was. Tashana, we'll be text messaging each other for life. Finally to Erum, I can't even put into words how much you mean to me. I really don't know what I would have done without you beside me. I know that our journey together will never end and our friendship will forever reach new heights. "Thank God I found you."

These four years at SWHS have truly flown by. It's time to walk out the same doors from which I came, to begin my future. My years here have been memorable but certain times made everything worth it. Movies with Sam, homeroom and the Raider, prank calls with Kristen, and good times with the Latin crew. Thanks to my friends, (you know who you are) for just being you and listening to me no matter how absurd. I relish the many laughs- you all have such dirty minds! Brad, we'll go climbing. My Parents, I can't thank you enough. The energy, patience, and love you've shown have meant a lot. Chris- keep a' goin. The crazy times with friends and family made life bearable. You've all supported and loved me. It wasn't easy. To my Senior Class- It's finally time to say goodbye. I know we'll all go forever reach new heights. "Thank God I found you."

Samantha O'Brien

Sam, Sammy, OB

When I first came here nothing seemed certain. Only a constant surplus of soda at Em's and Duke vs UConn fights were inevitable. But it was the discoveries along the way that made these years great. Mr. Roboto concerts in the car with Ash and sledding with Mere, Ash Em, Schmapdi, Laura G, and Erika were awesome. AP study: 1143 certified! Always laugh Jane because life is funny! Videos with Risa. Kennedy accents with Laura B. There were times when we never knew where to go next (the answer usually was Target), but no matter what direction, the journey would always end with my friends and family. Dad, Mom, Maura, Matt- I love you and I'm so grateful for everything. Left to SWHS: my little bro, Matt- you amaze me every day with your talents- USE THEM! "This is it, don't get scared now." Kevin McAllister, Home Alone

Shannon O'Connor

High school was like being slowly run over with a steam roller feet first. To my friends (merry pranksters) who got me through, thanks. When we're 50, Fish, Irish jigs, "I only put food in my mouth", Dent Mobile missions with Morelli, Pink Floyd, dateless club, the "Eds", "too many jokes Goose", "She's too short to even . . . oh", falling in duck ponds, basically living at the Gamache's, morning rides, only a true friend will clean puke out of your hair, it's so ridiculous, it's ridiculous, throwing pens at Fridays, bajmahall insanity, freezin with Rog 11/6, "foxy lady", crazy clowns in tight jeans, all my "projects", 104, Ozzfest, "I'm not Marcia Brady," meeting Slipknot, "Yay", Point Sebago, #17, "lick it baby!", Renata, the Smokin Saab, Phish Food, "I wanna be sedated", the penny mystery, "I got a snake man", "mom, that girl ate my soda bread", soakin feet, I love you Dray! Left to SWHS: Tanya, Jesus, Rebekah, my "little" bros- J.D. and Kyle. "I've had a good time, just not here."

James Ohliger

What can I say about 4 years here? It ruled! We had so many crazy times. Prom Weekend '01 was off the hook: "What the bleep is that noise!" Baj Mahal nights, "the meetings", movie nights at Liz's: "Route...", well we all know what goes after that, ping pong tourneys with Nate, Fisher, Elgart, Craig, and Min... I will always rule the table! The Periwinkle Trail- "she tripped!" Hot tub nights with Shannon- "omg, there's a ditch!" Xtreme bowling- lots of money lost, "the two-bar rule", Ed Pcruta night with Korn - "incandescent"- nice thinking, Min. The Lemurs during that endless night. Min, don't ever forget our goals of this year. "Zigga Zow". Craig- "Taking a look at the clock...sniffle". Caty, don't think I was going to forget you. You made my time here unforgettable. And, of course, a special thanks to Mom and Dad for everything you've done for me. To all: Never forget that friendships are priceless.

Jessica Jean Oliva

Jess, JessO, #1

It's already senior year, and I've just realized how fast it's gone by. Freshman year flew by with Diana, Jen, Carlee, and "the notebook." As the years passed, I'll never forget my friendship with Ashley. Our beach trip was the best. "Follow that car!" and remember that you can dream, too. How can I forget Latin class stories with Jenna, Steph, and Thuy? Prom '01 and our car trouble, but at least we got to the beach. I'll have to say senior year is the most memorable. Homecoming '01 with Amanda, Anna, Amber, Jen, Thuy, Carlee, Cadiz, and Ashley, but there is so much more to come. Most importantly, I am thankful to my parents for helping me to accomplish my dreams. Left to SWHS is my brother, Justin, and all my softball chicas; Don't forget to keep working hard and enjoy the time you have left.

Kimberly Anne Olmstead

In the past four years I have realized the true value of friendship, experienced love, and made insane memories. Visits to Sun Sun-boots to the dome, Fun at Valley Falls, home away from home, and Alfred and goose! To my girls, I couldn't have done it without you, I love you all. Carebears and Pigs with ber. Crazy adventures at Bennett's with Leigh Ann. Drive- by's, trips to Shemo's, and personals with Sami. My bunny chell "Are you with me?"- Crazy nit! Family values with the pack. Prom '01 with Matzy. Irreplaceable times with Christopher. You're my bebe, best friend, hubby, and carrot. I love you the whole world. My forever friend Steph. Frank (big bro) thanks for all the long talks. Matty- we've been through a lot, I'll miss you. Sira - come home! Mom, you're my angel. Daddy- you're one of a kind, I'll always be your little girl. Left to SWHS: Erin- lil sis, be good. Pres- represent.

It's been a long ride in plenty of cars. Late night rides in the truck with Bin and a toilet. The Volvo, louder than a stock car in reverse, Tomzak you're my car buddy. Speakin of loud; the beetle? Let's push it up a mountain: cardog wanna drive? $4.00 racing stripes on the wagon: Hoodsoop. RIP: Volvo, Probe. Fischer, don't call me stupid! Fun times in the garage with Nick and Dave. Sleddin: Andy, it's dark, I'm scared. Nick's basement: She's got sauerkraut breath. Good times in New Orleans with the gang: Lookin is alright! Crossin the line every chance I got. Mustup, Mmm. Homecoming 1 big D you're my queen. Bowlin with the boys: I am big. $150.00 quad. Waa . haircuts v Craig. Salvy's with Elgart. Hi five farmin with Jerf, Jordan and the rest of the Fosters. Don with the rust Bondo forever! Haha; Got any gum? "Blanket Boy; To the linen closet"

Boy, Lil' Tex

A summation of my time spent here at SWHS can best be described with a series of quotes; "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." "Carpe Diem." We rarely get second chances. "You can't get to where you want to go if you don't know where you are." "Sometimes you're the windshield sometimes you're the bug." For all you whiners. "Don't cry b/c it's over, smile b/c it happened." "I like pink!" High school is only 1/20th of our life yet it means so much at the time. "Eyes with pride." marching band. Cheerleading, there's nothing like it. That's hor-e-bol!" Long live Foley plays. My advice: Find something you're good at and do it better than everyone else. Don't let anyone tell you what you can and can not do with your life. And do whatever is necessary to make yourself happy. And finally, "Veni, Vidi, Vici." p.s. Remember my name, You will hear it again.

Ashley Parker

Spud, Parker Parker

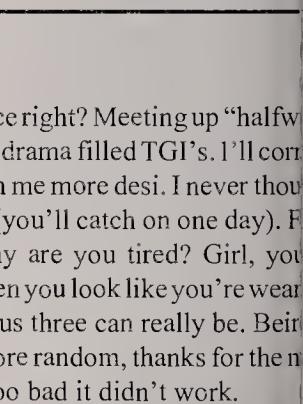

High school is a time of discovery. My friends and the experiences I shared with them helped me to make my discovery. Jess, always remember the crazy plans we made and to never stop dreaming! "Follow that ear!" All the long talks about superheroes and food binges with Erica were unforgettable. Hot tubing, Prom, the all nighter, the drive in, shindigs, and the beach. Being "bad" with Amber! All our long talks, drive bys, being VIP's, and bunking in the bus. To my fellow baywatch babe, Cadiz, always worship the holy spot and don't wave to strangers! All the crazy road trips with Nicole and our coffee talks were great! Singing LFO with Carlee and number nine. Silly phone calls and Chinese food with Thuy! Mom and Dad, thanks for always supporting and encouraging me! I love you both! Kevin, it's all you now! You can do it kid!

Soniya Patel

Sony

Finally out! Can't forget all you people. Uzma, Canada's a province right? Meeting up "halfway" and "the basement" hangout have been memorable. And of course drama filled TGI's. I'll corrr you when we live like the "Friends", just watch! Thanks for makin me more desi. I never thought you desi fools would be so much fun. French classes with Thuy (you'll catch on one day). First period study was interesting, laughin half asleep. Amanda why are you tired? Girl, you definitely gonna die from laughter one day! Erum can you see? Uyen you look like you're wearing only eyeliner! The sessions were fun, I'll never forget how lazy us three can really be. Being a part of the race wars at Activity was funny. Usman admit it I'm more random, thanks for the nuk and cookies! Everyone, thanks for trying to keep me on track, too bad it didn't work.

Good-bye S.W.H.S Hello new life. Keri, a lot of time has passed, college is going to be the best times for you. Orch officers, love the tushy. Bush-baby, Sebago was awesome. Getting dorked, we really do have friends. Katherine "rock on" Myrtle Beach, late bunkhouse talks. Marcus, I will always have fond memories. Jess my soul sister; boy have we lived. Your tumbling in the waves and I'm walking in the wind on the beach, at least we are together. Joshua, past, present, and looking forward to the future. I love you so much. Dad you helped me with the animals, crazy ideas, thanks. Mom, best friends, where I would be without you? Thanks for always being there. I love you guys. Bubby you are the best brother a sister could ever ask for thanks. Ken, Don and Mike you all have been big brothers to me, thank you. I love you all. Everyone else, don't worry, be happy.

Jennifer Pescik

four years in high school have taught me to treasure friendships and to appreciate family. Daily phone conversations, rides, weekend shopping trips, and many more memories with Kasia. Surprise 16th Birthday, history projects, sleepovers, first summer job with Krysta and Carlee will never be forgotten. Freshman basketball with Diana, movies and long talks with Jess, Homecoming '01. Weekends hanging out with Iren (my twin), birthdays, Friendly's, the beach; thanks for always being there. Friendship with Kristin since elementary school! With the encouragement and support of my family, friends, and teachers, I leave for college with faith in my future. Elaine and Allison: you are the best sisters a girl could ask for. I love you mom, dad, and grandma: thanks for your confidence in me! Good luck Class of '02!

high school flew by, and for that I'm very grateful. Thanks to all the true friends that stuck by me in all the tough times. Nickay you've been by my side since the start of two, I'll always carry the memories of the store, night pool wrestling, "what's mean what kind, the kind". Brian - you never failed to make me laugh and cheer me up. I hope to stay this close in California. Last but not least my Ashley Anne, we've been together all four years of high school and I have to say it was really hard to keep us together but I'm so glad we stuck it out. I've watched you grow into one of the most beautiful human beings. I will love you always and hope for the best in our future together.

Na Pezella

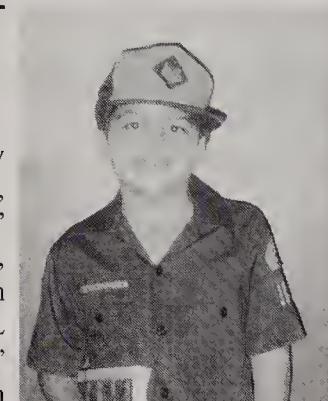

Thank you to everyone who has touched my life during my four years at SWHS. You are all an integral part of who I am now and I will someday be. In particular, I'd like to thank Mr. Harak, not only for challenging me academically, but for helping me find the strength to stand up for what I believe. Also, thanks to Mr. Archibald and Mr. Foley for teaching me how to write, to Mrs. Quinn for helping me survive the college application process, and to Mr. Myslinski for your support, encouragement, and knowledge. Rachel and Allison, though I will probably never agree with either of you, I will miss you both. Steph - we've been friends since sixth grade, and although we're both going to South Windsor next year that will never change. Finally, to the SWHS class of 2002, never give up striving for your dreams, for they are, as Lord Byron said, "heralds of eternity."

many times to remember and not enough space. To my friends, I will never forget the times we shared. Brandon, Matt, Iun: NORMAL "Roulette?" "Getting married Brandon?" until vacations with Diablo, The online era, Thank you day, sitting over history class! Oh man of the day, Late talks on one, "Start up for me, Reaper," "Could he be...?" Jesse: ALL OUR BASE, "Mom?" "BOO, get off the stage(St. Jean)" what do you MEAN!?" "You being stupid, Fool?" English teacher James, "Façade?" Physics with Aakar, "Questions, answers, thoughts?" Plays with Jarod, Chris, Amanda, Ryan, Jon, Spag, and all of you! Spectre times! Prom '01 with Katie. Montreal with Jesse, Chris, Greg. Thanks to: Mom and dad, Mr. Foley for opening my eyes, Graner, Yurii Hen for keeping me humane. To everyone: school may seem long, but it's so short. Enjoy it!

Andrew Pinnow

Pinnow, Pinto, P-Dub, Andy

has been good, wouldn't change it for anything. Too many memories to remember. First off, nothing will ever take place of chillin with my boys. E-Dub in the van doing laps when there's nothing else to do. Late nights with Dan, Luda, Chevmo, Paul, Steve, and Steve. Soccer through the years ending with 14 of us. Messin around with cars with Suraj, Rob, and Baki. 4th period posse. Hanging in Jackman. Always chillin with my boys Mackie, Kap, Baki, and BigA. Kassie's house: esp. the first time. Prom at Dan's and in the cold, times at his house. bonfires. Suraj's basement. Canada. Big L's house with Moses and the crew. Big to the girls: Lisa, Kassie, Alli, Tully, Stacy, Kara, Keri, Melis, Linz. Up in Smoke! and D. B. Chillin' at Gerber, the spot, sanctuary, stone, anywhere. To Mom and Dad thanks for guidance and Lisa for being there for me.

Aaron Platteis

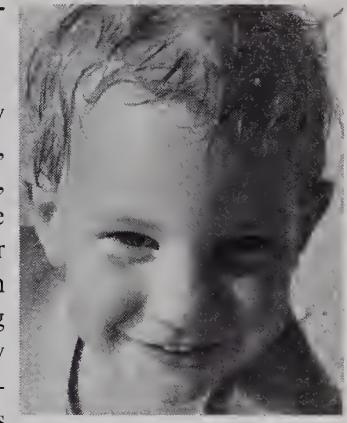

Wow! Where has the time gone? There have been so many great memories during my high school career. Laser Quest with the hockey team. Sam's pasta dinner, talk about a wild night! Junior Prom '01 with Susanna was great and so was the night after. Thanks to all the guys Frank, Eric, Matt, Dave, Andre, Jared, Chris, Scott, and the ladies. Lacrosse the next morning wasn't though. Chillin with Baker, and Scott riding in stealth mode, and doing what it takes for the necessities. Frank's birthday was the bomb. Working at the Little Taste and Mother Goose. I leave all the underclass ladies to K. Jodice, and Mike M. Special thanks to my parents who have always been there to support and guide me. Thank you Adam for showing me the way. Senior year has been banging and I hope the future is even better. Peace, I'm out!

So many people have come and gone in my life that it's hard to recognize everyone who has had a significant impact on me. My friends for the past three years; Jay, Jared, volleyball was great. Cara, hanging at your house. Steph, following you at night. Tom and Al, Robo geeks! Courtney and Clinton, stats and chem. Sage, the trip to Quebec: You've all been great to me and I wish you all the best of luck with your lives. Thank you for being there for me. For everyone else that I haven't mentioned, you will not be forgotten. Molly, I will never forget the day at Six Flags, I'm still sorry about that, but it changed my life. I love you so much and no matter where our lives take us I'm never going to give you up. To my dad: thanks for supporting me for all these years, I know it's not easy but I appreciate everything you've done for me. I love you.

At the base of a mountain, The path was unknown. There he stood surrounded by a family of stone. They began their journey, to the top of the crest. Through the thick and thin, They were put to the test. As the trip wore on, And the going got tough, Few people remained, The journey was rough. The others had wandered, To paths of their own, They'd meet at the top, At a much larger stone. -Chris- I want to thank you for always being there, Smuggler's- Talks and Sports, So many we share -Paul- you know me the best, You've been there for it all, Too many memories to name, Without your friendship I would not be the same. Thanks to all those who've supported me, in my basketball dreams, to my family and coaches, and to my friends on the teams. -Ash- It wasn't until some time spent apart, we realized what we missed, and got a new start. It may have taken 6 years, but we got to that place, thanks for the smiles you've brought to my face. I give my family all the love in my heart, Mom and Dad Kristen and Meme, and so here I start...

Nicholas F. Rago

School has definitely not been a waste. I have made many friends that I will most likely never speak to again after this year, but the times were cool. I will never forget all those women in New York with Foley or the time we drove that car into that gas station. Oh man.... I won't forget the time I went to Palm Springs with Matt D. Way too hot, and way too long. I'm glad school is over, but I am going to miss all of the pointless entertainment. Good times in NYC was great, and walking at least 15 blocks during the early morning hours was one of the most fearful moments in my life. Soldiers Of Light for life.

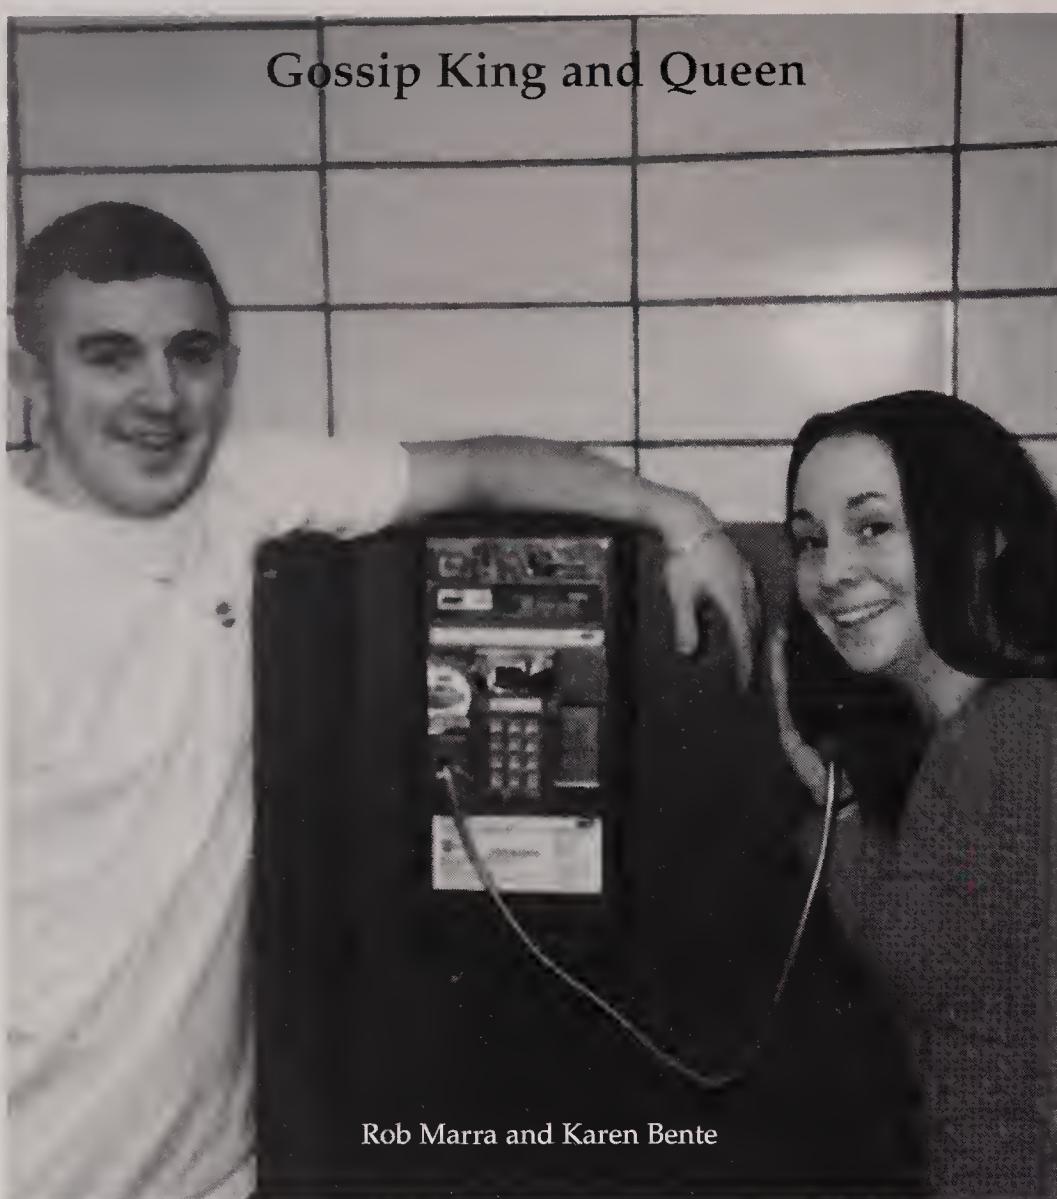

Nicholas M. Rapheal

Nick-ay, That Loud Kid, Rafel

First things first: Mom and Dad, I love you guys. Thank you so much for everything you've done for me. I probably didn't realize all of it along the way, but I definitely do now. Thank you. Dan - you're OK. So many good times with all of you guys; midnight pool wrestling. Thanksgiving '00 (you're welcome), paintball, and about fifteen more years of craziness with Brian. Craig, you're the man. You made track these four years the best experience ever. Mr. Ellis, you're also the man. Stay up play-a. Mr. Bouchard, thank you so much for everything. Dr. Petros, Thank you, and take care of the fish! And Renée, I love you so much. Thank you for always being there for me, no matter what. You've brought so much happiness into my life, Princess. You're the most wonderful person ever (cva eva)! Have fun! Good luck! Look out for Gabriela, class of 2016!

High school was an experience let me tell you. The dances, pep rallies, football games, soccer games, prom, working at Subway everything was amazing. To all my friends I have made these four years I love you and I will miss you all especially, Shell you are my oldest best friend and always will be, Katie I love you to death and will always be there for you like a best friend should, Ashy and Christina you guys crack me up. I always have fun with you guys and will always be your best friend! Jess you are too awesome for words you could could always get me out of a funk and I love you for it. We have learned a lot from each other and I'm glad we're still best friends. Molly, you know I love dance class "what the shizz?" Justin yeah I'll miss you too. Cara, I love you hun good luck next year, Hathaway and Courtney thanks for your costumes and helping me in the plays. Zack I had so much fun walking with you after lunch you are awesome, Erin Keaveny I will miss you so much in English. I hope everything goes well next year. Judy and Heather I'll miss you too keep in touch. Sage what would I do without your gossip! Becca, you're on your own now. And to my brother Adam '05 have fun and do well!!

I can't believe that the end is so near. I've waited for this final year and now I wish for time to slow back down. Diana, Kelli, Emily, thanks for always being there; I wouldn't know what to do without you! Ash, Sam, Carlee, Erica G., Mere, you all have been such great friends, and I've loved every minute we've spent together. Amanda and Tiffany...I love you both, I miss you both so much. I wish you could have been here with me to go through this crazy year together. Nathaniel, Joe, Dan, Caleb... The best guy friends a girl could ever have. Nothing would be possible without the support of my parents. I love you so much. I owe my successes to the support you have always shown me. Thank you, Zachary and Madison...the future is just waiting for your smiling, beautiful faces. I'm so happy that you're a part of my life. I love you.

Nolas Ross

Floyd, is that a band? Do they play them on 104? Speaking of music, Scott, did you hear that new song on the radio? Dave, I really enjoy how every single plan we ever had never worked. kept the Cadcrew in the woods with Greg, Matt, and Z...cutting down 30ft trees with a pocketknife. Some winter, we will camp out at Wal-Mart. Greg the pig on my mo'pat, tling Julius Lambert in my backyard. The Volvo is gone, but likely we got a $150 ATV as a replacement. It's a two-stroke. it's a good thing you're here to the mature and wise sions. Bad times in my garage, cleaning the rust off the floor with a snow shovel. Good times with The Bug, that is, when there's nothing wrong with it. Well, thanks Mom and Dad and anyone who has ever helped me. Don't stop laughing you know when you're being real and when you're acting?

something to think about you give them a good one?
Good show
What happens when you fall off?
You find yourself with yourself and you freak out
We love each other steeped in lies
When does it end?
Sometimes the mask slips and falls off
We see each other's real faces" – Henry Rollins

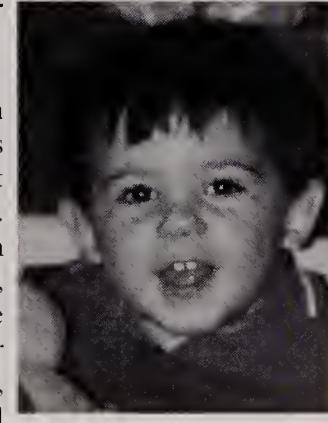

Kristen, Tina, Lev, Krissy, and Tuan: thank you for being there, I love you all. To Tim, Joe, et al: thanks for the good times. To any/everyone else: thank you. Good thing there's more to life than high school.

It's all over. I can't believe that after four years in high school, my years here at SWHS, not to mention countless others in grade school and middle school, have come to an end. I won't be able to mention everyone's name because there are so many. Soh, the Sarahs, Rachel, Dan (Spags!) and Mike; you all mean so much to me. I can't put it into words; well I guess I just did, didn't I? No Emily, I didn't forget you at all. This was all some kind of plot of mine to drive you crazy. Did it work? I remember Prom and Prom Weekend '01, trumpet in Wind Ensemble, laughs in French class, the world "crashing," the wonderful Each trip (do you still remember it all?), wonderful discussions in the cafeteria, pit orchestra with Mr. Henriques, being a senior, and my...delayed...reactions. I thank you all for everything; good luck and God bless you all.

My gosh! Can it be true? It's the end of my four years and they have been well... interesting. Going into high school was scary. The first day seeing all the seniors seemed so far away but look here ah! I would like to thank my teachers and everyone that helped me. And to my friends, Katie Brady where's your hair? Jan good luck with you know who. Dana one word Homecoming. Heather it's been fun, keep in touch. Allison one word super women. To all the Sarahs, Rae Rae, Karebear, Emi, Gia, Steph's, Mike, Lindy bee, and Ali. Happy Holiday. To people that know my screen name keep in touch and thank you. For your future.

Four years flew by. Freshman and sophomore years were before they began. Then junior and senior years were here. What a blast. Chillin at the Stone, Suraj's Basement, DMB Concerts, The Bird Sanctuary, Dan's House, Kassie's House, Bob's House with Pinnow, Bon Fires at Mackies. Prom Weekend, being pulled over. What a mess. Baseball and Basketball. Football what a blast. Griff, Max, Chris, Chev, and the twins. Rides with coach LaRochelle. The bottle throwings. State Tournament every year with Coach Harak. Basketball, loved playing with Kap, Dre, Danny, Mike, Brian, Spiegel and Big A. Thanks to all my friends. All my boys that I didn't mention, and of course all the senior girls. Dre and Robb, thanks for being there. Mom and dad thanks for everything, Love You All!

Four years at SWHS has sparked too many memories to list here in 700 characters. Good times with Eric, Alex, Nate, K-dawg, Jesse, Zak, Daver, Betsy, Justin, Steph and of course the robo-girls (Pam, Kim, Julia and Sania). Odd lunch conversations. Fun days with Molly and Jay in chemistry with Whitey. Prom '01: keeping Jerry awake on the ride home. How could I ever forget the good times in Computer Networking. All of the never-ending FIRST fun: "177!", New Hampshire, Meadows, Florida and all of its fun, the Flying dog incident, late nights. UTC + Galileo Champs 2001. Thanks to all the engineers from IFC + Gerber, Bects, Sully, PJ, and most of all thanks to Mr. Mo. Thanks to my sister Erica for her help, and good luck to my other sister Karla, and all of her friends.

These past 4 years have been great. Countless nights hanging out with Chevmo, Nate, Mackie, Luda, Schil, Dan, Pinnow, Griff, Ryan, Kap, and Paul who I grew up with and have known forever. Good times at Nates, Suraj's, Schil, Paul's and Mackies' "fire it up," the stone, spot, sanctuary, and Gerber. P-dub in Chevmos van. Tripp road, 12mph, Kassies beachhouse, up in smoke, DMB, KMK, mobb deep, hit and run '01, prom, beef at the rink, pong champs with dre, baseball, Good luck everyone!

Memories: Hanging with my boys Ryan, Steve, Dave, Paul and all the rest. Old times with my boy Joel. Trips to Maine, Vermont, and Canada. New year's night. Fun night's at Brunno's. Way too many rides around Ellington. Just put Brian in the trunk. The cape every summer. Trying to avoid the leaf piles. Steve way too slow in the Firebird. Pauly's morning time. Chillin at the spot. Living it up with Mike. Hanging with the hippies. Bugged out car rides with the boys. Always down for the late night times. "The beast" no one can handle it. Most meaningful out of all the memories is times with my baby Mia. I love you more than anything and always will. Quote: "You think you know, but you have no idea"

"Life brings tears, smiles, and memories. Tears dry, smiles fade, but memories last forever." This unforgettable experience has left me with memories that I'll never let go- stone, vb, DMB, 104, Rosic, Homecoming, Thursdays, Kassie's, Prom, New Year. Boys-thanks for the laughs. Good times with Kas, Em, Lis, Nora and Lauren-I cherish our friendship. Kara, Bente, Michelle, Laura-crazy times- victims, missions, our anthem, uno, OZ, boot, pregamin', Home Depot, EW, River po – you never let me down, our friendship is priceless. My best friends Ker and Linz-untouchable memories-sprinkles, tubing, karaoke, lisps, UConn, sleepovers, Limp Bizkit, crushes, rm401, Italy, concerts-we've been through it all and have a friendship to last a lifetime. Thanks for always being there, I love you! Mom and Dad- you have inspired me to be who I am, I love you. Mia and Matt- I'll miss you! Good Luck '02!

Wow, I'm a senior! Dave Matthew's '99, '00, '01, was a party with Lauren's and my "annual picture," Andrea's pure craziness, boys! Prom '01! Snowball '99, and our five-minute show at Homecoming '01! Nikki-as Cartman said "We are best friends until the end." South Park days! I won't ski with you again unless I feel like meeting another Gerbil. Simon Bench is our place to steal cool flowers. Aunt Meme and the "Kiss of shame!" We'll publish our book! Shannon- I'm so glad you were always there to dance on a table with me, especially "merr" au Paris and going to "block-parties." Ange and Lauren- what can I say, I love the Saab and good times with you! Meredith and Allison- I'm so lucky to have become great friends with you guys this year! Erin, thanks for the chicken! To Cara, Jane, Lawren, and Chris: good luck, I'll miss you all! Mom and Dad, you're the most amazing people I know, thanks, I love you! Jonathan, have fun, but not too much fun!

I want to go back to a time when... decisions were made by going "eeny-meeny-miny-mo" ... mistakes were corrected by simply exclaiming "do over" ... we can't go back but we'll always remember. Tif- from M&M's, surprise birthday parties and singing to sleepovers. Joe and the cottage, no one could ask for a better friend. Love ya girl. Tom- Prom, Jell-O, out to lunch, collages, and baking, never say goodbye. Kris- ice-skating, beach boys with guitars, garbage cans, Montreal, times spent with the Verg and Lal, and so many more. Thanks for being there when no one else was. Michael, my most favorite thing ever, cutting you was just the beginning of the endless memories: Oranges, peach jolly ranchers, lemon lifesavers, blankets, "kiss", "fix that", and marshmallows. "My heart does truly belong next to yours." Can't forget Dzens with Laura, fun times in the Lumina, AZ '00, VA '01. Mom and Dad, and Gonny, I love you with all my heart, Thank You. Left to SWHS: Ad, be strong you'll get through it. Rach, I'll be back for some H&W.

I've been thinking about what to write in this for four years now and now that the time has come I am speechless. I have so many people to thank. There were so many "good times". I loved the outing trips with JD and Rachel, Dancin with the Diva and proms '00 and '01. Junior year was the best, and then in the end there was TJ, I love you now and forever. Shannon and Judy we stayed together till the end, our little fights and Judy's long Vaca. to FL. Ryan, thank you for the shoulder to cry on and Mike M. thanks for being a brother to me, it meant a lot. Thank you Mikey for all the laughs. Heather, we have been through it all and have that friendship we had in the beginning. Steph and Jackie, you are my best friends (corruption Halloween!) Thank you Mom and Dad, I could not have done it without you, I love you. Left to SWHS~ Kenny and Kyle, "cupcake" (my little bro) and my little sister Julie, Billy, you'll be here soon buddy, don't worry!

If there's one thing I've learned in life, it is who cares what other people think of you, all that counts is how you think of yourself and how you carry yourself in life. I would not be the same person that I am today if it wasn't for the people I have met and the experiences that I have had. My move to Fl. Uzbekistan, It was hard but well worth it; Karly the sweetest person I have ever met, never change. Shmegs thanks for everything I will never forget you. To all my friends I love you; you are what make me special. Alicia, since 3rd grade, best friends forever. Linza we could sit forever, not say anything and walk away thinking it was the best conversation we have ever had. Meg I love you. Cheerleaders- I love you guys. To the Soucy family, dude are so many of us! Mom and Dad thanks for always being there, I love you. Everyone else I will never forget you.

I can't believe it's all over. After 13 years of hitting the snooze button, it's all over. Even though I'm the one graduating I really couldn't have done it alone. So many people have made so many differences. My family believed in me wholeheartedly, and taught me to strive for better things. Countless teachers took the time to go over that one last thing. Last, but not least, my friends. I won't list all of your names, you know who you are, and I want to thank you all, for making me laugh until I cry (constantly), turning my crying into laughing, or even just listening to the random things that come out of my mouth. You have all made more of a difference than you'll ever know, I love you all. Happy Graduation Class of 2002, we made it.

High school is high school. I will miss a few people, others do not know me and I have intention of them getting to. After all four years I've come out with a few true boys, but lots many that I thought were true. To Joe, you're my dog and we will never lose it. Jeff, you're the only one to keep me real and focused on life, thank you. You are my boy for life, we keep it real. Levi, you are a true dog, always there. To Coleman, after all is said and done, I respect you. The good times are chillin at cribo with Jeff and Greg, hangin tough in the car on many rides in peace land, long nights and talks on Dower, camping '01 in RI with the best people I ever met. Denise, you have kept true through it all. Thank you for giving me the best four years of my life, it's you. I love you Shorty. To my parents, I want to thank you for everything you have done for me. I can't understand how, but you kept the faith. Thank you.

My childhood. Gone in the blink of an eye. The one love that made these years complete for me. Football. The best times of my life have been with this team. Barrett, Kap, Clouser, Dash, Houle, Korn, Grillo. We did it baby, CCC East champs, and the trophy back home. Bobcats for life! Motto-thanks for the support dog, wish you were there. Chill in with the ROC and one-man army always. Mad concerts with my boys, Snoop, Ruff Ryders, Family Values. I couldn't have made it without rap, the one inspirational music. I love basketball. Great times with Dre, Duy, Kap, Schill, Presto, Dan, Boomer, and my boys at the hill. Through the good and the bad, two people have always been there. Thanks mom and dad. I love you. Todd, I leave you with a heart of a champion. Represent. Our friendship is only beginning. Dad, you are my greatest teacher. The most important thing I have learned in my life so far is that no matter what happens to you, we end when trust in God begins.

High School had its good times and its bad, but I have to say thank you to all of those that helped me through the years. I would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Field. You probably did the most for me out of anyone in the high school, both faculty and student. I would like to hope that I freaked you out a little every once in a while. For everyone else, I would rather not give names in fear that I leave some out so for everyone who helped me, thank you, and enjoy your remaining years at SWHS. Remember you are high schoolers; don't get wrapped up in the love and romances. Just date around and see what you like. It is not worth it when you are young, so enjoy yourself. And for the few I was kind of close to, "I make it worth your while."

My time here has been a blessing. The people I've met, those lives that have profoundly touched my own and all the intimate moments I've shared with the common soul of my cherished peers, an astounding quality that took me four priceless years to unearth. Thank God I finally did. The unutterable beauty of all these things becomes my intangible love for our fragile, fading adolescence. I'll miss this part of life which we can never recover. Dalesio, your chops far surpass my own. Zach, we have the greatest cars EVER. Ash and Al, I'll never forget your invaluable friendships. Kerry, thank you for giving me something gorgeous to think about, I can never repay you. Thanks most of all to my amazing Mom who has made me the person I am today and showed me what true beauty is. I leave SWHS to my dear sisters Ab and Bridge and my good friend Brent. Adieu.

The past four years have gone by so fast. I have a lot of great memories, and a few that I wish I could forget. Nikki- we've been there for each other during the good times and the bad. You're a true friend. I'll never forget all of the crazy times we've spent together. Vacations, long drives, hours of talking, etc. Jeff- we've become close over the past two years despite some bad decisions that we've both made. We can't change the past; we can only look ahead to the future. We've been through a lot, and everything worked out for the best. You are and always will be very special to me. I love you. Dad-Things have been crazy the last year or so, but you were always there when I needed you. Thank you for being so patient and understanding. I love you. Meg- I'm glad we were always here for each other. I hope that never changes. I love you Wow, I sure had an interesting four years here at SWHS. I hung out with a core group of guys in a specific corner upstairs. Steve Chenard, Curtis Kilburn, Aakar Vachani, and I were that core group. It seemed like every year we at least got one more person in that group. One thing that will always stand out in my mind is the 2 times we went up to Boston. After the first game, when we got back from the game to drive home the rest of the way, we realized that my car had been towed. We all freaked out running throughout that city until somebody finally helped us out. The second time the guys and me went up, Steve almost hit four cars and he did officially get us lost. During the summer of our junior year all my friends and I always went extreme bowling. They had limbo contests there and I always won them, and that's why they call me the limbo man. Ever since I've been at SHWS I've never seen two worse teams than the NY Giants and the Patriots, they're just horrible. Some things that I remember me saying to others, or others saying to me are, "Steve, leave the ham alone!" and "watch out for that tree!" To all my peeps, Class of 2002, and beyond...good luck.

The Future Begins Now

Senior Year, we never thought it would come, and we never imagined it to end. As the year is soon to come to an end, we are left thinking what will become of us? We will no longer see the people we ran around at recess with, got caught with, cried with, laughed with, and mostly shared this experience with. For some, this may be the best thing that could happen to them, getting away from South Windsor and living on their own. For others, the thought of packing all their clothes, saying goodbye to the bed they slept in for 18 years, and leaving their family to live in a dorm or apartment is terrifying. South Windsor, although a small town, holds so much within it. It's a common ground that hasn't been broken. Everyone has had late night stops at the Country Store or 7-Eleven, spending two dollars to get into a Bobcats game, and playing phone tag on the weekends to find out what's going on. We now have to realize that we have to put all these familiar things behind us, and plan our future. "After graduation, I look forward to experiencing what the future holds for me outside of South Windsor, but want to enjoy my last summer with my friends." says Senior Laura Burrill. Starting a life outside of high school is the next step toward our lives as individuals in society. Starting new classes in college, living in your own apartment, no curfews, and no limits at all are all the things the majority of the senior class will experience next year. "I can't wait to start a life outside of the same place I have been for a while. I find it exciting more than anything that I will be responsible for myself at all times. I think it's a good change for a lot of people," states Senior Denise Georgeady. The biggest change we will all have to face is meeting new people. Some of the senior class seem excited about this, getting a new perspective about issues from someone they don't even know at all. Others feel tense about having to trust and get to know new people like the way you have known your classmates here at South Windsor High School. There's no doubt about it that our years at SWHS have been fun ones, although thinking of the memories will be all we have left this same time next year. Instead of getting down on ourselves that our high school years will be ending soon, let's make the best of it. Make every day of our senior year worth it, smile as often as possible, and make as many memories as you can to take with you. We started this journey together in younger years, and we will finish it on the stage at graduation, together again. South Windsor will always be here, holding all it holds, although the bond must be broken. This is what the future is really all about.

"I can no longer remain as I was, you have led me to the sunny side, where growth is a matter of course." To all of my girls that mean the world to me: Lisa, Kassie, Stacey, and Lauren- you've surrounded me with so much more than familiar faces. Together we have cried and laughed over and over again. Nothing can replace the memories of "The bug" and the truck, Kass's house(s), prom, tanning on roofs, dances, DMB. Ker, Alli, Michelle, Cait, Bente, Kara, Melis, and Linz- Thanks for all the laughs, I don't know what I would do without you. Justin, Baker, Mike, and all the rest of the crew thanks for the awesome times. Pete- I will never forget the times we've shared, you'll always be in my heart. Lax and soccer- never to be forgotten. Left to SWHS: Thanks Mom, Dad, and Dorothy for all of your love and support. Lori, Ash, Brower and E.J- Good luck!

My last year in High School is not yet finished but so far it has been exciting. I've learned many new concepts throughout high school, such as setting goals and having morals. High school has helped me through life and also has helped my future become a lot brighter. Thanks to all my teachers, especially Mrs. Field, I have a career planned for myself. I also would like to thank all of my "corner" friends for being there for me along the way. Most of all I would like to thank my Mom and Dad.

The time has come to say goodbye! Homecoming '00-oops with the Oh's. Prom '01 and weekend at Larson's resort. Fashion club forever, beaches, boys, "I like pizza a lot Steve," Cornholio! The spot, roofs, Berlin, concerts '97-'02, Puppies, boo, playin in the snow. Noah, you always hold my hand, and when I fall apart you hold it tighter. You've showed me so much, I'll love you always. Mel many great times. Chris sorry for the hole in your seat. Larson we've climbed so many hills, but we always ended up at the top holding hands, thanks for giving me strength and keepin me in line. Billie who else can laugh for hours in a room over dumb poems you wrote in 2nd grade. We can, we had so many fun times never forget them. Thanks Mom, I did it. To SWHS: Justine-behave girls, lil Lane, Kyle never forget the summer '01 and the frog song.

For one reason or another I got sick before my freshman year and never got better so high school has been tough. But then again it would have been no matter what. Yet somehow we all made it through because of my faith in God and other people's faith in me. I have been successful. I want to thank my parents, Colin, Michael, Karen, the Sarahs, Jill, Janet, Sage, Erin, Mr. H, Mr. Frank, and especially Mrs. Roushoni- I could not have survived without your support. To the Marching Band at DMA, I learned that you are the strength of the band but sometimes the band is the strength of you. Thank you for being my strength. I love you guys. To everyone- "Friends are friends forever if the Lord's the Lord of them, and a friend will not say never because the welcome will not end." Though it's hard to let you go, in the Father's hand we'll know that a lifetime's not too long to live as friends.

Recently, I've realized how special the last four years have been. I've made so many memories with the people who mean the world to me. I'll never forget our sleepovers, Chowdertown, the woods, concerts, booth twenty-seven, softball, prom, and the times we just laughed. These memories will be with me forever. I have to thank Em and Erika for being my best friends and for always making me laugh. Carlee, Ashley, Kristen, Sam, Mer, Ashley, Carolyn, Kristen, Kelly, Thuy, Jay, Jeff, Seth, Brad, and Baker, you guys are the reasons I smile. Mr. Ellis, Mr. O'Konis, Mrs. Wimer, Mr. Chernik, Mr. Lotrek, thanks for going above and beyond. Mom, Dad, Jen, and Gram, I love you. I couldn't have done it alone. You made me who I am. Left to SWHS: Jen and MOM! Enjoy it time flies when you're having fun!

Michael Warner

I want to thank my family, friends, and teachers for all the support during these past four years. I will always remember the good times: the field trips to New York and to the Expo Center, playing baseball, and going to the Junior Prom with Stephanie. I had a great time! Hanging out with Aakar and Jason, playing football and going to Extreme Bowling with Aakar, Matt Rosa, Matt Tremblay, Steve, Dan, and Curtis. These past four years went by quickly. But I really had fun! My mom and dad, my brothers: Ray and Steve, my sisters: Michelle, Sherri, Renee, Sue and Dianne, I love you all so much and thanks for all your support. Now I am ready and looking forward to the next level of my life, College.

Kelly Weinzimmer

Kel, Hockey Chick

Wow, it's all over. Eleven crazy years of hockey. Caitlin, my best buddy, never forget our lip gloss and Peter Pan and Lloyd! Jen, remember falling down the hill, swimming with Billy and your duck and Austin Powers. Four great summers at the farm with everyone at one in the morning. Riding on Saturdays. Playing pool and going to truck shows and loud speakers with Bird and Arsenault. Arse, thanks for being my "girlfriend" and my buddy. Italy was great. I'll never forget it. Eatin bagels with Carolyn and knitting with Michelle. Mike, thanks for being my brother and a great friend. Mom, thank you for everything. Secret presents in my suitcase and listening to me talk all day. Dad, always remember our Higashi nights and the great times we had like Newport. I love you both so much. Thanks for always being there for me. I'll miss you Look back at the last four years of my life, and there is only one word that can summarize everything that has happened. Insanity. From the first day of freshman year until the day we graduate, I know that it will be nothing short of sheer insanity; and I would want nothing short of it. However, the trip would not have been fun, or worth it if it wasn't for those who have helped me shape who I am. There are millions of memories, millions of faces, and millions of dreams and I wouldn't trade them for the world. From hanging the front porch with Fisher, to volleyball with the others, to ping pong and Bajmahals, to prom weekend with the crew, long talks with all my friends, and family, to bowling night with the feilas, and just dreaming of life to come. I thank all of my fellow students for being who they are, and allowing me to live it up with them.

Lison Zaccaro

li, Allita, Big Al

It seems like only yesterday that I was listening to Aaliyah with Lauren and now the best four years of my life are coming to an end. There have been so many memories- Prom, Myrtle Beach, RI, Kassie's Beach House, DMB, 5, M&Ms, Spring Fling, Homecoming '99. Liz, Amanda, Erum, Sara, Claire, and Lauren, we have been through so much together and you have meant more to me than you will ever know. Thanks Lisa, Kassie, Lauren, and Emily for the great times and Suraj, what would I do without you? No one is back to poke or house to live at. Stacey- "Iotion Detectors." You have truly been a best friend through thick and thin, thanks for the talks. Robbie-the past two years have been unforgettable. You've been by my side through everything and I will always be here when you need me. Mom and Dad-I couldn't have made it without your strength and support. I love you both very much.

Craig Zandonella

When I look at my four years here at SWHS, I see so many memories-soceer, rec. ball, v-ball, golf and pong, nights at the BajMahal, hanging out with everyone-we had a great run, truck riding with a farmer, a toilet, and Bin... Butter how do you silence a cricket? EHGC anyone, don't worry we never paid, GHO, remember Korn's out of bounds. Ohliger-what time is it? Sniffle... K-Dog what can I say-toilet and urinal? Or twins at the Cape? Brittany milk ad? Elgart thanks for everything, good to have you there. Susan, it was great while it lasted, thanks for being there. Jon, Dan and Brian, it was great growing up with you guys, thanks for the good times and of course Fish-tackling trees? Home away from home, thanks for every thing. Mrs. Fisher-Eric you were always there man, thanks. Congratulations to all my classmates and good luck in the future. One more thing, thanks Mom and Dad, for everything.

Stephanie Zemanek

I can't believe it is over already, What an experience. Remembering all the great times with my friends. Jenn, "how you livin?" you're my best friend love ya! Ryan, (Halloween) and behind the shed with Eric and Mike. Summer '01, going to the pike with Adam and Bernadine (road rage) meeting people there and rollin in the S10. Ceejay, "is Shaniqua there?" Prom '01 Walking in 30 minutes late. After prom in the shed. "Melissa I... love you" and all the rest who were there. All the crazy experiences in and out of school, going snowboarding with Michelle "hey we tried." and teaching Jenn. Hearing all about Mikey's McDonald adventures in homeroom and writing this. To everyone I forgot, don't stress but there is a reason why you aren't listed. To Mom and Dad thanks for all your support through everything, I love you! Ky, good luck in the years to come, have fun, you can do it, I did!

Matt Zinn

I would like to say thanks to my dad for helping me succeed in school. I would also like to say thanks to my mom who I miss and love a lot. I would like to say good luck to my big brother and have fun in college. I've made a lot of memories and had a lot of fun with skating with my crew (Kinky) Eric C, Val, Mark D, Gabrielle and little D. Thanks to my girlfriend Val for helping me through everything and always being there for me. It's been the best year, I love you. Snowboarding with Eric C, Dave K, Nick R, and Josh has been fun. Going dirt biking with CJ and Chris P, and Josh, sometimes Nick S. Going to Bristol Tech. is more fun than South Windsor because we work on cars all day.

Daniel Jay

Congratulations son, we are very proud of you. Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster hand, they go to the one who trusts in God and always thinks "I can". Enjoy your college years and may all your goals and dreams come true.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad and J.P.

Victoria Chaparro

Yes, it's time for you to go out into the big world that our dear God gave us. Yes, we had our ups and downs and we had to watch our p's and q's, but I'll do it all over again just for you. Now you're all grown up and going into the Big Apple. Remember this picture. It's the first time you went to New York and I watched your eyes light up and your facial expression was saying so much. Remember, I'm only a phone call away and I'm so proud of you.

God Bless You, Love Mom

Dear Jesse,
"To laugh often and love much; to win the respect of intelligent persons and the affection of children, to earn the approbation of honest critics; to appreciate beauty; to give of one's self, to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to have played and laughed with enthusiasm and sung with exultation; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived - that is to have succeeded." Ralph Waldo Emerson
As you begin the next of life's adventures, may your successes be even greater than the ones in this one.

Michelle,
Ever since the night you were born,
when a tornado passed through that East Texas town, we knew that our lives would be forever changed.
We knew that you had a special gift early in your life with those nerves of steel you had while winning the Gold Medal at the Nutmeg State Games when you were only ten. Then again when you competed at the National Precision Championships at the Senior level when you were twelve and finally by achieving straight A's since first grade.

Now you are ready to move on to college life. It hardly seems like 15 years since we took your picture next to that baby tree in Florida. As you move forward, continue to reach for the stars and never forget how much we all love you.

Craig Zandonella

Craig,
That smile lights up our lives! We are very proud of the person you've become. Your compassion for others, sense of humor and enthusiasm for life will serve you well as you follow your dreams.

We love you!
Mom, Dad, Nick, Adam, and Ben

Mackie Yakaitis

The years have passed so quickly since you started kindergarten at the tender age of 4. We have so many wonderful memories of you. You've brought so much love, sensitivity, humor and great friends into our lives, hearts and home. It's hard to believe you're on your way to the next life and journey of higher learning, socialization and independence- college. We have every confidence in the world that you'll meet all of your new challenges with the same determination, resourcefulness, intelligence, good humor and charm that you have utilized in the majority of your endeavors throughout your 17 years. Remember, if you can dream it, you can do it and most importantly, do ALL things with love. We love you and we're proud of the mature young man you've become. The sound of you strumming those melodic chords on your guitar is something we'll miss immensely while you're away. Don't ever stop playing the music you enjoy so much. We wish you every success in the world, and we've left these inspirational words to live by as you continue on your life's journey.

"Turns out not where, but who you're with that really matters." - Dave Matthews

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is the meaning of success." - Ralph Waldo Emerson

All our love and best wishes for a happy, healthy future. Live with PASSION !!!

Amber Hovland

To all of the "friends" who have passed through our doors these last four years:

We will always remember pictures in front of the fireplace, motorhome sleep-overs, "Free" sodas from the machine, potato skins, the endless Reeses supply, the star room, foosball tournaments and lots of laughs.

It has been a privilege and a honor to watch you all grow up. We are very proud of each and every one of you. We know you will go on to do great things in your lives!

We'll miss you!

Love,
The Hovlands

Amber Hovland

Amber,

I love you so much. Thank you for always being there, in good times and bad, for guidance, a midnight talk, or just to chill. You are more than just a sister to me, you are my best friend. Good luck in the future and may all your dreams come true.

Love,
Ashly

Eric Fisher

Eric-

Congratulations! We are so very proud of you. Your accomplishments, your aspirations, your focus and your principles are an inspiration.

Dream big, work hard - and (most importantly) have a blast!

Love,
Mom and Kelsey

Meredith Gagnon

Meredith,

It seems like only yesterday when we were counting "little piggies", searching for "Go Go Walking Pup", and shipping "Winkie" clear across the country. Long gone are the times when a band-aid made a headache go away, a good dance was "Knees Up Mother Brown" and a little doll named Sally was your best friend. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. Always remember that no matter how old or how far away you are, you will always be our little "muffin."

Mom, Dad, Kevin, Chloe and Mabel (Jake and Libby too!)

Michelle Baratta

Michelle,

From the day you were born you have been our little angel. It is now time for you to spread your wings and fly. Reach for the stars, use the lessons you have learned, push yourself to reach your goals and know that you will always have a home in our hearts. We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments.

Love you, Sisty!
